Emotionally adrift and lonely after his wife's death, Boise Montague does the thing no one should ever do: he goes back home again. Boise remembered the Caribbean home of his childhood in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, as a paradise. But when his best friend is murdered and the case quickly buried by local police, Boise realizes how far paradise has fallen. With the aid of Dana Goode, a local reporter investigating the kidnapping of a real estate mogul's daughter, Boise goes on the hunt for his friend's killer. But he'll find more than he bargained for: much more. Shroudeaters Maria Arena, 2017 The life of mortals is so mean a thing as to be virtually unlife. Empedocles Christian Carfax wants to be immortal. Juliana Celeste, a powerful but embittered French vampire, has the gift he needs. The exchange should be easy enough: his blood relinquished for eternal life. There's only one problem. For over seventy years, Juliana has endured the Sisyphean burden of The Thirst while watching as everyone and everything she loves has been lost to her. Now the time has come to make her parents, the vampires Callisto and Constantine, pay for their theft by ridding the world of them and the scourge of their kin, the Shroudeaters. But no plan ever evolves as intended, and as the competing desires of Juliana and Christian collide, they will sacrifice lives, loves, and loyalties to gain the ultimate prize. Juno Loves Legs Karl

Geary, 2023-04-18 For readers of Sally Rooney and fans of Shuggie Bain and Just Kids, Juno Loves Legs is the epic and heartbreaking story of a young friendship set in working-class Dublin in the 1980s. Juno Loves Legs is the story of two teens labeled as delinquents. Juno and Legs grow up on the same housing estate in Dublin, where spirited, intelligent Juno is ostracized for her poverty, and Legs is persecuted for his sexuality. They find safety only in each other. Set against the backdrop of Dublin in the 1980s a place of political social and religious change the friends yearn for an unbound life and together they begin to fight to take up the space of who they truly are As their defiance reverberates through their lives the children are further alienated from their surrounding society through acts of bravery and cowardice both their own and others Finding themselves as outsiders they are feared coveted and watched but rarely truly seen Told through the eyes of Juno we see the pair begin to navigate the political and oftentimes confusing adult world with honesty and intuition A country emerging from a dark Catholicism into the wider world of possibilities Who is invited into modernity and gentrification and who is left behind Caught between the rich depth of her intellect and the harsh reality of her life we follow Juno as she begins to understand how divergent a life lived and a life thought can be Juno Loves Legs shows the frustration of feeling trapped in a life that is not yours and the ability of friendship to lift us out of our experiences and into a truer version of ourselves It is a novel that reminds us that kindness bravery and love appear in places where they are not always expected and in forms not usually recognised but with a potency that cannot be ignored Falling in Love at Pennycress Inn Sarah Hope, 2025-06-15

Europe and the Other and Europe as the Other Bo Stråth, 2010 This book contributes to the debate on what Europe means by demonstrating the complexities and contradictions inherent in the concept They are seen most clearly when Europe is viewed from a long historical perspective During the closing decades of the twentieth century Europe emerged as one of the main points of reference in both the cultural and the political constructs of the global community An obsession with the concept of European identity is readily discernible This process of identity construction provokes critical questions which the book aims to address At the same time the book explores the opportunities offered by the concept of Europe to see how it may be used in the construction of the future The approach is one of both deconstruction and reconstruction The issue of Europe is closely related in the book to more general issues concerning the cultural construction of community The book should therefore be seen as the companion of Myth and Memory in the Construction of Community which is also published by PIE Peter Lang in the series Multiple Europes The book appears within the framework of a research project on the cultural construction of community in modernisation processes in comparison This project is a joint enterprise of the European University Institute in Florence and the Humboldt University in Berlin sponsored by the Bank of Sweden Tercentenary Fund
