Folk Art and Aging Jon Kay, 2016-08-08 Growing old doesn't have to be seen as an eventual failure but rather as an important developmental stage of creativity Offering an absorbing and fresh perspective on aging and crafts Jon Kay explores how elders choose to tap into their creative and personal potential through making life story objects Carving painting and rug hooking not only help seniors to cope with the ailments of aging and loneliness but also to achieve greater satisfaction with their lives Whether revived from childhood memories or inspired by their capacity to connect to others meaningful memory projects serve as a lens for focusing on remaking and sharing the long ago These activities often help elders productively fill the hours after they have raised their children retired from their jobs and or lost a loved one These individuals forge new identities for themselves that do not erase their earlier lives but build on them and new lives that include sharing scenes and stories from their memories Finnish Folk Poetry and the Kalevala Thomas A.

DuBois, 2022-02-13 Since its initial publication in the early nineteenth century Elias Lonnrot's Finnish epic Kalevala has attracted international interest and scholarship However the author comments that the distorting lenses of translation cultural difference and historical distance have rendered the work a cryptic and often misinterpreted text outside of its country of origin Even within Finland scholars have found it difficult at times to judge the relation of the Kalevala to its oral sources Lonnrot's meticulous notes and discussions of intent and accomplishment make clear what he changed and how he went about it but give us less inkling of why This study's view is that the key to understanding Lonnrot's changes lies in Romantic aesthetics and in the intellectual and socio political agendas which they encode Lonnrot created a Romantic epic out of Baltic Finnic folk poetry an epic complete with the narrative generic gendered and political characteristics of literary epics in nineteenth century Europe The Handbook of Cannabis Therapeutics Ethan B.
