A 30-day devotional on one of God's powerful promises

"He who promised is faithful"

Hebrews 10:23 NKJV

GOD'S TREASURE

Now we have this treasure in clay jars, so that this extraordinary power may be from God and not from us.

— 2 Corinthians 4:7 csa

A Transforming Treasure

A rich, young man asked Jesus, "What must I do to have eternal life?" Jesus responded, "Sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. And come, follow Me." (Matthew 19: 16, 21).

This man's wealth was his identity. The treasure found in Jesus would have surpassed any earthly riches, but the Gospel light, described in 2 Corinthians 4:6 as "light of knowledge of the God's glory in the face of Jesus Christ," had not penetrated the darkness of his heart. The man walked away sad. The reality is, this light must illuminate the darkness into which we are all born before any of us can choose to follow Jesus. Thankfully, the Creator of the first light continues to bring light into our hearts.

And the Maker of the first man continues to create seemingly unfit treasure-keepers. Miraculously, He calls these treasure-keepers His children. Clay in the hands of the Master Potter. Fragile, unlikely holders of the greatest treasure, namely, Gospel light.

It's believed by some scholars that the rich, young man may have been Saul of Tarsus who would later be radically transformed and known as the Apostle Paul. And that transformation began when he encountered a blinding, darkness-illuminating light. Does it seem strange for God to use such an unlikely man? Almost as strange as storing a valuable treasure in clay jars. As we begin our study, we will discover that God's ways are very different than ours. Together we will marvel at Gospel paradoxes, God's power, and the treasure that is forever ours in Jesus.

Reichenbach, 2016-09-08 We ask God to involve himself providentially in our lives yet we cherish our freedom to choose and act Employing both theological reflection and philosophical analysis the author explores how to resolve the interesting and provocative puzzles arising from these seemingly conflicting desires He inquires what sovereignty means and how sovereigns balance their power and prerogatives with the free responses of their subjects Since we are physically embodied in a physical world we also need to ask how this is compatible with our being free agents Providence raises questions about God's fundamental attributes The author considers what it means to affirm God's goodness as logically contingent how being almighty interfaces with God's self-limitation and the persistent problems that arise from claiming that God foreknows the future Discussion of these divine properties spills over into the related issues of why God allows or even causes pain and suffering why if God is all-knowing we need to petition God repeatedly and encounter so many unanswered prayers and how miracles as ways God acts in the world are possible and knowable Throughout the author looks at Scripture and attends to how providence deepens our understanding of God and enriches our lives Idealist Ethics W. J. Mander, 2016 W. J. Mander examines the nature of idealist ethics the form and content of ethical belief most typically adopted by philosophical idealists He identifies a tradition of idealist ethics before going on to argue that such an approach offers an attractive way of looking at moral questions and has much to contribute to contemporary discussion Kingdom Of God Peter Kamaleshwar Singh, 2022-10-06 The Lord is the Creator of the universe In this world there are many countries and kingdoms Everything ultimately belongs to Him Then what is the Kingdom of God we are talking about God is the master planner and everything that is created is working out according to His plan He began the creation with His kingdom in the center To establish His kingdom with men in His likeness everything in history has been working thus far The meditations help the reader to meditate on the theme and understand the unfolding of the Holy Spirit He illuminates the scriptures and enriches our inner eyes to grasp the depth of His wisdom Living in the Light \(eBook\) Retah McPherson, 2013-07-24 We try our best to be the person others expect us to be but we often lose track of ourselves in the process In her book LIVING IN THE LIGHT Retah McPherson reminds us that only God knows who we really are Through 101 devotions she highlights that we first need to connect with God in spirit and in truth before we can truly know ourselves The devotions are divided into 10 thematic sections Some of these themes include Knowing God s Heart Taking Up Your Position Breaking the Shackles Prayer Changes Things LIVING IN THE LIGHT also allows readers to write down a personal prayer at the end of each chapter about their daily journey in God s light The Image of God Eleonore Stump,2022-04-14 The problem of mourning is the last and hardest part of the problem of evil To show that suffering is defeated for a sufferer a theodicy argues that there is an outweighing benefit which could not have been gotten without the suffering Typically this condition has the tacit presupposition given that this is a post Fall world Consequently there is a sense in which human suffering would not be shown to be defeated even if there were a successful theodicy because a theodicy typically implies that the benefit in question could have been gotten without the suffering if there had not been a Fall There is a part of the problem of evil that would remain then even if there were a successful theodicy This is the problem of mourning even defeated suffering in the post Fall world merits mourning How is this warranted mourning compatible with the existence of an omniscient omnipotent perfectly good God The traditional response to this problem is the felix culpa view which maintains that the original sin was fortunate because there is an outweighing benefit to sufferers that could not be gotten in a world without suffering The felix culpa view presupposes an object of evaluation namely the true self of a human being and a standard of evaluation for human lives This book explores these and a variety of other topics in philosophical theology in order to explain and evaluate the role of suffering in human lives God'S Plan of Creation Robert N. Smith,2014-11-15 Gods Plan of Creation Written for All Gods Children Who Want to Know and Are Not Afraid to Think offers scripturally informed answers to questions arising in peoples minds as they wonder about the nature of God and His designs for all of creation By using a three part structure that examines the Siege the Legacy and the Story Robert N Smith brings to bear both his long study of the Scriptures and his insights to provide guidance for all who want to know and are not afraid to think The first part the Siege presents an inquiry and review of humanitys continuing efforts to gain hold of its Legacy The focus of the second portion of Gods Plan of Creation the Legacy entails the gifts that God has chosen to give to humanity and that people today have received from the hands of their forebears in the faith Finally the Story displays a visual timeline of creation plotting out key points of theology and cosmology It is laid out landscape therefore it does not fit the book format Part 3 is in progress and will follow soon If you see the world in all its beauty complexity and diversity and you find yourself wondering about the God who made all things and about His desires for how humanity fits into His plans then Gods Plan of Creation Written for All Gods Children Who Want to Know and Are Not Afraid to Think will pour out insights worth pondering It takes a fearless and eyes wide open look at God and His plans and invites you to join in a journey of vision and discovery Immemorial Silence Karmen MacKendrick,2001-03-01 MacKendrick philosophy Le Moyne College explores language and
