Rubin, 2003 This monograph features the work of Douglas Bourgeois a figurative artist whose meticulously detailed paintings and sculptural assemblages present icons of popular culture as well as ordinary people from Louisiana's diverse populations Bourgeois work often portrays religious imagery and environmental concerns and the political issues expressed in the rock and roll and movies he loves He fuses private fantasy with a kind of social document exploring everything from racial tensions to violence both domestic and public The artist like the figures he depicts searches for magic or spiritual qualities in everyday life Ultimately he and his art seek redemption 65 colour 21 b/w illustrations Artbibliographies Modern ,1995 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Dutch Neorealism, Cinema, and the Politics of Painting, 1927-1945 Stephanie Lebas Huber, 2024-08-12 This study offers a radically new perspective on Dutch Neorealism one that emphasizes the role of film as an apparatus the effects of which when emulated in painting can reproduce the affective experience of film watching

More of a tendency than a tightly defined style or ism Neorealism is the Dutch variant of Magic Realism an uncanny mode of figurative painting identified with Neue Sachlichkeit in Germany and Novecento in Italy Best represented by the Dutch artists Pyke Koch Carel Willink Charley Toorop Raoul Hynckes Dick Ket and Wim Schuhmacher Neorealism as demonstrated in this book depicted societal disintegration and allegories of looming disaster in reaction to the rise of totalitarian regimes and eventually the Nazi Occupation of The Netherlands The degree to which these artists exhibited either revolutionary or reactionary sentiments usually corresponding with their political affiliation is one of the central problematics explored in this text The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history World War II history and film studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
