Quality Assurance in Higher Education: A Study of Developing Countries David Lim,2018-01-12 This title was first published in 2001 Universities in developing countries have followed their counterparts in developed countries and adopted quality assurance to improve the quality of their activities This text examines the wisdom of such a move when many of the conditions necessary for its success are not present It concludes that quality assurance can be useful in developing countries because it shows how a university s seemingly disparate activities are related to one another to serve a common goal and how the quality of these can best be improved by using an integrated approach Quality assurance also provides more focus and direction to the work of the traditional university system However it must be modified to suit the conditions prevailing in developing countries by being simple in design modest in expectations and realistic in requirements

Toward Quality Assurance and Excellence in Higher Education Al Jaber, Ahmed Odeh,2018-08-15 Quality Assurance is not a new concept in the education sector in general and higher education in particular though it is becoming increasingly more relevant and important Higher education helps to improve an individual s quality of life by enabling them to inflate their knowledge and expertise to grasp abstract concepts and theories and to raise their awareness of the world and their community and as such the assurance of quality is becoming more pivotal in the whole education process There is no simple definition of the concept of quality in education though numerous models and theories have been devised Toward Quality Assurance and Excellence of Higher Education is a new episode of the Quality Assurance perception in higher education which identifies the quality culture and orientation from the beginning integrating crucial factors to build a pyramid of higher education excellence The book compares concepts from the main theories of Quality Assurance management and control when they are applied to educational systems in higher education The book also presents a new model of excellence in higher education Excellence is an architecture of building blocks that includes process performance effectiveness harmony and collaboration and these bocks should be incorporated in a quality oriented concept for sustainable excellence of higher education The model integrates four main facets the Educational System Quality Assurance Managing and Control Strategic Planning and Globalization Also presented are international best practices in quality assurance in higher education from Japan and Finland

Quality Assurance in Higher Education Stamelos Georgios,K.M. Joshi,Saeed Paivandi,2017-01-30 The significant growth of number of students enrolled in tertiary education institutions in the recent past decades has caused an unprecedented expansion of higher education systems The rapid and constant social economic and technological mutations and international competition make the importance of qualitatively well educated citizenry and labor forces very decisive Globalization has developed a powerful impact on the development of higher education and imposes new challenges for the organization standards financing regulations Systems of higher education tend to detach from the national models and adopt a more global orientation The implementation of quality assurance is one of the recent and most decisive transformations of higher education Different higher education systems are trying to develop assessment tools internal and external to improve the quality of teaching research and extension activities and these are either based on experiences of selected countries or are extensively country specific The quality assurance procedures that were often dependent on national directorial traditions have gradually tended to converge and led to a setup of common tools and standards Countries under a centralized system tend to impose a uniform and general model while decentralized systems give greater freedom to universities to set up their own quality International rankings of universities also contribute to impose a set of transnational standards and values which is also being considered as indicative by the stakeholders The present book tries to look at the quality assurance mechanism international rankings and its impact in both absolute and comparative fashion in context of 11 countries from different parts of the world

The Legitimacy of Quality Assurance in Higher Education Luc Weber, Katia Dolgova-Dreyer, Council of Europe, 2007-01-01 In this publication quality assurance is seen as part of the public responsibility for higher education The contributions by policy makers and practitioners consider the role of quality assurance as an element of higher education governance and explore its function in the recognition of qualifications Case studies illustrate its various aspects in two different national settings

Quality Assurance is not a new concept in the education sector in general and higher education in particular though it is becoming increasingly more relevant and important. Higher education helps to improve an individual's quality of life by enabling them to inflate their knowledge and expertise to grasp abstract concepts and theories and to raise their awareness of the world and their community and as such the assurance of quality is becoming more pivotal in the whole education process. There is no simple definition of the concept of quality in education though numerous models and theories have been devised. Toward Quality Assurance and Excellence of Higher Education is a new episode of the Quality Assurance perception in higher education which identifies the quality culture and orientation from the beginning integrating crucial factors to build a pyramid of higher education excellence. The book compares concepts from the main theories of Quality Assurance management and control when they are applied to educational systems in higher education. The book also presents a new model of excellence in higher education. Excellence is an architecture of building blocks that comes with process performance effectiveness harmony and collaboration which should be incorporated in a quality oriented concept of a sustainable excellence of higher education. The model integrates four main facets: the Educational System, Quality Assurance, Managing and Control, Strategic Planning and Globalization. Also presented are international best practices in quality assurance in higher education from Japan and Finland.
