Interventions in Australia Keeping Young People in Education, Employment and Training OECD,2023-04-28 About one in ten young people in Australia are neither in employment education or training NEET a factor that may lower their long term economic prospects and threaten their well being Individuals who did not graduate from upper secondary education who have health limitations or who are Indigenous are over represented in this group Alternative Learning Environments Gary J. Coates,2023-09-22 Originally published in 1974 this volume presents viable alternatives to traditional attitudes and practices in environmental design and education It contains 29 selections that reflect the thought and actions of leaders from many diverse disciplines and professions Architects landscape architects urban planners teachers and administrators psychologists and social theorists address themselves to controversial and important issues facing our post industrial society The range of subjects explored in the volume is far reaching Environmental education in which the art of planning and designing itself becomes the curriculum Advocacy planning and community participation in both educational and design decision making Alternative educational institutions ranging from community centered schools and mobile schools to non school learning networks that distribute the learning activity throughout the fabric of the city and the lifetime of the learner New developments in systematic design methods and evaluation research that promise to make the design process more public and responsive to the user client The Praeger International Handbook of Special Education Michael L.

Wehmeyer, James R. Patton, 2017-06-15 This handbook provides a concise overview of special education services in countries across the world using the Article on Education in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities as the analytical frame The Praeger International Handbook of Special Education presents a concise and clear overview of special education services in more than 70 countries across the world using the Article on Education in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with disabilities as the analytical frame Each chapter offers information about the country in general followed by sections on the public education system the private education system the special education system teacher training requirements and barriers to and promising trends in inclusive and special education The volumes and chapters are organized by the United Nations Geoscheme with Volume 1 including an overview of the volumes and chapters on countries in the Americas Volume 2 addressing countries from Europe and Africa and Volume 3 focusing on countries in Asia and Oceania This is the most complete exploration of the delivery of supports and services to children and youth with disabilities across the globe available The volumes do not compare among or between countries but rather provide a baseline for understanding current special education practices and their relationship with general education and inclusive practices across the globe Readers will come away with an in depth understanding of what is happening with regard to the implementation of special education services and Article 24 of the Convention for the Rights of People with Disabilities This valuable reference set serves researchers graduate students and policymakers in special and general education as well as professionals focused on issues of education worldwide and scholars focused on international special education As such this handbook will be an important reference source for university libraries professional associations and policy entities Child Rearing in the Home and School R.P. Boger, R.J. Griffiore, 2013-06-29 This volume is intended to address contemporary aspects of child rearing in the home and the school as well as major dimensions of inter face between the home and the school The authors of these chapters have used varying styles and approaches and the range of perspectives is very broad and inclusive An essential notion integrating all chapters is that child rearing is a human ecological concern of dominant importance for the home the school and the community during the 1980 s and that this will continue to be true in the future This volume is intended to be useful as a reference book as a text for researchers and for policy makers It is hoped that the volume also will be of use to parents teachers school administrators child care workers and others who are interested in child nurturance The editors wish to extend appreciation to many individuals who made this effort possible Our colleagues Hiram Fitzgerald and Marjorie Kostelnik have been most helpful and encouraging We thank them for their patience support and invaluable editorial assistance during the production of the camera ready copy of the volume We also thank Barbara Taylor for her assistance in typing the chapters and Carrie DeMyers for typing the camera ready copy Carrie s good nature and posi tive outlook helped to smooth over the many frustrations inherent in the assembly and production of anthologies such as this one
