An Ibero-American Perspective on Narratives of Pandemics Zélia M. Bora, Animesh Roy, Ricardo de la Fuente Ballesteros, 2023-08-08 An Ibero American Perspective on Narratives of Pandemics is a critique of the realities of the pandemic in the Ibero American world and its intertwined relationship with the environment Through a critical gaze into the history of the region as it has evolved through periods of socio environmental and cultural conflicts the book chronicles multiple experiences of how people managed to negotiate multiple crises on a daily basis by often clinging to their age old cultural and healing practices as well as the humanistic representation of such experiences in various fictional and nonfictional writings The contributors expose the biopolitics around COVID 19 and its effects particularly on marginalised populations and the environment in an effort to consider the complexity of the pandemic in its multiple dimensions They evaluate it through climatic socioeconomic political scientific and cultural lenses that they argue shaped the realities of the pandemic They also take a close look at the use and effects of language in virtual spaces implying it has the ability to construct misconstruct reality in this postmodern world arguing there is a need for a new environmental ethic post pandemic
