The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa York W. Bradshaw, Stephen N. Ndegwa, 2000 In the 1970s and 1980s Indiana University Press published a series of books edited by Gwendolen Carter and others on economic and political conditions in Southern Africa during the apartheid era The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa is a return to that successful format in the post apartheid era Leading scholars analyze the economic political social and cultural conditions in Southern Africa and the prospects for the region The first part of the book examines the current political and development situation in six countries South Africa Namibia Botswana Zimbabwe Angola and Mozambique The second part focuses on issues of enduring importance in the region education health gender the law intra and inter regional power relations international commerce and popular culture

Non-racialism in South Africa David Everatt, 2017-07-05 When Nelson Mandela was elected President of South Africa in 1994 the world looked on at the miracle of racial reconciliation that unfolded in South Africa However the dream of a Rainbow Nation in Archbishop Desmond Tutu's phrase seems to be fading and racial identities seem to be more entrenched than ever What prospects then for the non racial democracy envisioned by Mandela and the South African Constitution This book examines the status and future prospects of non racialism It discusses the nature of non racialism and applies the concept to wider national issues and to questions of identity The book looks out into South Africa's future and assesses generational changes to the country's handling of non racialism This latter point is the main theme in the opening preface by Ahmed Kathrada jailed with Nelson Mandela who reminds the reader that there is no easy answer non racialism is built every day every minute by people who seek to transform social relations and allow the Rainbow Nation to flourish This book was published as a special issue of Politikon

African Religion in the Dialogue Debate Laurenti Magesa, 2010 Dialogue between African Religion and other world religions has regrettably been a much neglected area in formal religious discourse in Africa to date Moreover up to now the imperative of dialogue in the process of evangelism figures only peripherally if at all in the study of African Christian Theology This book is probably the first deliberate extensive and well argued attempt by an African theologian to fill this unfortunate lacuna How can Christian and African spiritualities interact with and enrich each other on the basis of mutual respect without as has historically been the case the one necessarily seeking to eradicate the other This is the fundamental question of dialogue discussed in the pages of this book Dr Laurenti Magesa is Senior Lecturer in African Theology at the Maryknoll Institute of African Studies and the Jesuit School of Theology Catholic University of Eastern Africa Nairobi Kenya

Cultural Studies of Modern Germany Russell A. Berman, 1993 A study probing the ambiguities of German nationhood Berman takes a theoretical perspective of cultural studies exploring such themes as the constitution of nationhood what holds a citizenry together and history's role in providing a framework for current identities and institutions

Race in Education Gerhard Mar,,2019-05-28 There is global evidence that ghosts of notions of essentialist differences between human groups continue to haunt in various forms People draw upon ideas of religion race ethnicity gender and sexuality and nation to draw distinctions Racism xenophobia sexism and right wing populism are ongoing and increasing phenomena In addition genetic science has introduced new forms of proof which lends itself to misuse to confirm common sense perceptions The valuable contributions of the authors in this publication not only warn against such notions but offer ways of exploring exposing and challenging the ghosts and the fears engendered through their contemporary forms

Values, Interests and Power: South African foreign policy in uncertain times Daniel D. Bradlow,Elizabeth Sidiropoulos,2020-01-01 About the publication South Africa's foreign policy makers are facing a substantial challenge From the advent of the democratic era in 1994 through to the early 2000s South Africa was a highly respected actor in international affairs with a number of impressive accomplishments in the areas of global governance peacekeeping and international norm entrepreneurship However since that time the country's international standing has declined The value based and innovative foreign policy that earned the early post apartheid South African government such great international respect has been replaced by a more transactional and tactically driven approach to international affairs The country's position as Africa's leading economy and voice in international affairs is increasingly being challenged by other African states This book explores how South Africa can develop a foreign policy strategy that is appropriate to the uncertain times in which we live and that both helps the country address its overwhelming domestic challenges of poverty inequality and unemployment and regain its former high international reputation The contributors to this book offer analyses and proposals for developing such a strategy within the context of the country's constitutional order and institutional constraints and that addresses the diverse and complex global and regional aspects of the country's international relations Endorsements In this valuable book which should be on every diplomat's bookshelf some of SA's foremost experts offer the government frank and compelling advice on how to conduct a much better foreign policy over the next decade The authors challenge Pretoria to muster all the country's assets and skills and not just those of the ruling party to pursue only the most important foreign policy goals And to be guided always by the lodestar of the Constitution Peter Fabricius Foreign Policy Analyst former Foreign Affairs Editor at Independent Newspapers In this one of a kind book of twelve chapters by emerging and experienced scholars the authors probe into factors shaping South African foreign policy lessons learned and the future strategy of the country's foreign policy in an ever changing world A compelling read for policy makers and scholars Ambassador Prof Iqbal Jhazbhay University of South Africa Member of the ANC's N E C International Relations Sub Committee its breadth will engage newcomers its insights will be useful to scholars and practitioners alike Professor Amrita Narlikar President German Institute for Global and Area Studies GIGA This book offers compelling insights on South Africa's foreign policy These varied pieces provide textured and critical perspectives that may help open up an avenue to re imagine South Africa s foreign policy afresh in the post Zuma years It is a compendium that should appeal to scholars of international relations practitioners of foreign policy and the broader policy community Professor Mzukiso Qobo Head School of Governance University of the Witwatersrand This nuanced and richly detailed volume offers the reader superb analyses of South Africa s foreign policy The authors contributions present both theoretical considerations and specific policy recommendations which make the book highly useful for both scholars and policy makers Each chapter is thus certain to significantly contribute to promoting the public debate about South Africa s place in the world Professor Oliver Stuenkel Funda o Getulio Vargas FGV Table of Contents ACKNOWLEDGMENTS CONTRIBUTORS Defining a South African foreign policy for the 2020s Challenges constraints and opportunities by Daniel D Bradlow Elizabeth Sidiropoulos Luanda Mpungose Foreign policy under the Constitution by Jonathan Klaaren Daiyaan Halim The courts and foreign policy powers by Nicole Fritz Overcoming bureaucratic and institutional challenges in South African foreign policy making by Arina Muresan Francis Kornegay South Africa s security interests in Africa Recommendations for the 2020s by Aditi Lalbahadur Anthoni van Nieuwkerk South Africa s peace and security interests beyond the continent by Garth Le Pere Lisa Otto Regional integration and industrial development in Southern Africa Where does South Africa stand by Maria Nkhonjera Simon Roberts South Africa and African continental economic integration in the 2020s by Lumkile Mondi Negotiating climate change in an increasingly uncertain global landscape Is there light at the end of the tunnel by Ellen Davies Saliem Fakir Melisha Nagiah Reforming the institutions of global economic governance and South Africa by Cleo Rose Innes Challenges and opportunities for non traditional diplomacy by Fritz Nganje Letlhogonolo Letshele Lessons learned and the path forward by Daniel Bradlow Elizabeth Sidiropoulos AnaSofia Bizos APPENDIX INDEX The Challenge of Teaching Controversial Issues Hilary Claire, Cathie Holden, 2007 Teaching about controversial issues is crucial but also very challenging This text dissects the nature of a specific controversy and offers practical strategies for helping students work through possible solutions

Allison, 2023-09-02 The impetus for the first edition was violent actions the white supremacist rally in Charlottesville Virginia in 2017 which was touched off by discussions about removing a statue to Robert E Lee and resulted in the death of Heather Heyer Since the publication of the first edition both history and democracy are being threatened in ways that we were only seeing small glimpses of in 2018 Today attempts to elevate new or more complex history has been met with vilification States across the country have passed legislation to ban critical race theory from being taught in public schools and are seeking ways to limit what teachers are allowed to teach about slavery and race in the United States These threats are unlikely to abate As such our responsibility as historians community leaders museum professionals and citizens is to redouble our efforts to share human stories in relatable ways and to exercise our rights and wield our power whenever and however we can The revised edition tackles the great issues of our time against the backdrop of monument culture and historical truth Debating African Issues William G. Moseley, Kefa M. Otiso, 2022-09-14 This debate style textbook allows students to explore diverse well founded views on controversial African issues pushing them to go beyond superficial interpretations and complicate and ground their understanding of the continent From the positive images in the film Black Panther to the derogatory remarks of former American President Donald Trump the African continent often figures prominently in the collective global imagination This interdisciplinary collection covers 20 enduring and contemporary debates across a broad range of subjects affecting Africa from development and health to agriculture climate change and urbanization Each chapter has a pro and con view penned by a leading expert on the topic in an accessible and engaging style These contrasting views on each issue are framed by an introduction that helps the student contextualize the debate and draw on further resources Moreover they enable readers to deepen their understanding of the topic develop a more nuanced perspective and foster classroom debates This book is an excellent resource for Africa related courses across a range of disciplinary and interdisciplinary fields including African studies anthropology development studies economics environmental studies geography history international studies political science and public health Juvenile Justice John A. Winterdyk, 2014-10-14 Juvenile justice has been and remains a topical issue at national and international levels There are various standards and guidelines for administration but six major models characterize juvenile justice systems worldwide participatory welfare corporatism modified justice justice and crime control Juvenile Justice International Perspectives Models and Trends presents contributions by authors from different countries in all five continents employing these six models The book begins with a comprehensive overview of the topic and the various international standards and guidelines designed to inform juvenile justice practices This introduction is followed by chapters on individual countries covered independently by resident experts allowing readers to appreciate a range of comparisons and to critically reflect on the relative merits of the different models Topics presented in each chapter include The country s history of juvenile justice The nature and status of delinquency Current legislation on juvenile justice How well the legislation complies with the Standard Minimum Rules of the Administration of Juvenile Justice as defined by the United Nations The type of juvenile justice model followed Age limits for male and female juvenile offenders Legal and social issues confronting juvenile offenders Current theoretical biases used to explain and justify response to delinquency Future issues challenges and or initiatives Text boxes supply current and relevant examples to contextualize key issues and themes Each chapter features discussion questions and helpful web links to facilitate further research Presented in an unbiased manner the book is a consolidated yet comprehensive overview of juvenile justice models and practices worldwide It enables readers to compare the relative strengths and weaknesses of different juvenile justice models systems and to evaluate all countries in light of the larger international phenomena of delinquency
