Robinson Jeffers

Robinson Jeffers Selected Poems:

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Tim Hunt, 1988 Robinson Jeffers 1887-1962 is not only the greatest poet that California and indeed the American West has produced but a major poet of the twentieth century who occupies a prominent place in the tradition of American prophetic poetry. Jeffers consciously set himself apart from the poetry of his generation by physical isolation at his home in Carmel by his unusual poetic form and by his stance as an anti-modernist. Yet his work represents a profound and profoundly original artistic response to problems that shaped modernist poetry and that still perplex poets today: how to reconcile scientific and artistic discourses and modes of vision; how to connect present-day experience to myths perceived as lying at the origins of human culture; how to renew the poetic language and how or whether to present art's claim to moral, spiritual, or epistemological seriousness within representations of modern phenomena. For Jeffers, as for no other important modern American poet, there has never been a collected poems not even a truly representative selected poems. The current Selected Poetry first published in 1938 contains no work from the last three volumes published during Jeffers' lifetime or from his posthumous volume. Now for the first time all of Jeffers' completed poems both published and unpublished are presented in a single comprehensive and textually authoritative edition. The first three volumes of this four-volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers' published work from 1920 to 1963. The present volume consists of poems published between 1920 and 1928 and includes some of his greatest and best-known poems: Tamar, Roan, Stallion, The Women at Point Sur, and Cawdor, as well as a recently discovered long poem Home. There is also an Editorial Note and a General Introduction.

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Robinson Jeffers, Tim Hunt, 1988. The first three volumes of this four-volume work will present chronologically all of Jeffers' published work from 1920 to 1963. Jeffers' publishers sometimes adjusted his punctuation presumably to bring the poems' punctuation into accord with grammatical convention. The texts for this edition revert to Jeffers' own preferences insofar as the best methods of modern textual editing can reveal them.

The Selected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Robinson Jeffers, 2001. This new Jeffers Selected Poetry includes poems from the last quarter century of his life; the previous Selected Poetry included poems only through 1937. It derives from the monumental five-volume The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers (Stanford, 1988, 2000) edited by Tim Hunt and includes a sampling of the poems Jeffers left unpublished along with several prose pieces in which he reflects on his poetry and poetics.

The Collected Poetry of Robinson Jeffers Robinson Jeffers, Tim Hunt, 1988. This volume is in three parts. Part I (1903-1920) includes Jeffers' earliest poetry and poems that were never published or were recently rediscovered. Part II (1920-1948) gathers all of Jeffers' major prose works. Part III (1910-1962) is mostly material that Jeffers never published and apparently never tried to publish. The book design is by Adrian Wilson in a 7 1/2 by 10 inch format.
