

Elect Howard W. Coles to City Council--South Dist.

COLES HAS BEST RECORD OF SERVICE TO THE CITY

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Howard W. Coles, born at Salcedo, N. Y., was graduated from East High School and later was a Sociology Major in the University School of the University of Rochester. He studied journalism in New York City. Came to Rochester in 1934 and founded the FREDERICK DOUGLASS VOICE NEWSPAPER. In 1940, he was appointed by the Mayor of Rochester to represent the City at the American Negro Exposition in Chicago and in 1942 he was recommended for the Spingarn Medal on the basis of his contribution to the community in the field of social and civic work. He was recommended (honors) by Dr. John Lewis, former Director of the Rochester Library System.

In 1941, he was historian and publicity director for the City of Rochester—sponsored transfer of the Douglass Monument to Highland Park. His magnificent expose, "Nomads from the South," which ran serially in the Voice, was responsible for interest in the condition of the migrant worker and subsequent State-wide cleanup of Labor Camps. He is also credited by the New York State Legislature with making the first housing survey in the City of Rochester (1937), and was a member of the City-Wide Housing Committee of the City of Rochester for four years, and for eight years was property manager for the Monroe County Savings Bank.

The original Housing Survey, compiled by Coles, was published in 1939 by the New York State Temporary Commission on the Condition of the Colored Urban Population. To the Legislature of the State of New York—Legislative Document (1939) No. 69.

Here is a quote from the Commission's Report: "Although Rochester is a very highly organized community in relation to matters concerning social work, social and economic research, etc., it is somewhat backward when viewed in terms of recent trends in programs for adequately housing the population. It was not until very recently that it (was) manifested an interest in studying the housing conditions facing its population. This interest was undoubtedly given impetus by a sample survey of housing conditions among Negroes, conducted in 1938 by the Voice Newspaper and its editor, Howard W. Coles."

He was also appointed by the Commissioner of the New York State Legislature in 1939 as Co-Chairman along with Miss Elizabeth Langford as a special committee to investigate and study Public Welfare Services in Rochester, New York. He was also instrumental in requesting the appointment of several Negro

Welfare Workers.

In 1940, he authored the "Cradle of Freedom," a history of the Negro people of Rochester and Western New York. He has contributed to Opportunity and Crisis Magazines, written a special series of six articles on housing of the Negro Family for the Democrat and Chronicle (1946). He has also contributed to the Rochester Times-Union, Rochester Evening News, and the Syracuse Herald-American. He was at one time representative of the Pittsburgh Courier, Chicago Defender, Afro-American and American News.

His book, "The Cradle of Freedom," can be found on the bookshelves of many of the Nation's leading Colleges, Universities and libraries—also in our public schools. Here are just a few of the great institutions of learning that are using this particular book—for research purposes: Howard, Yale, Rochester, Harvard, Duke, Vanderbilt, Princeton, New York, Columbia, City College, Boston, Atlanta, Cornell, Fisk, Tuskegee, Syracuse, College, Chicago and Temple Universities.

ORGANIZATION AFFILIATION AND COMMITTEES

He is a member of the International Race Relations Committee; a Mason; United Steel Workers of America; Union; Radio Missionary Singers Union of New York State; former member of the NAACP Executive Board; Citizens Committee in Cooperation with the REPC; (Having sponsored the first Citizens Meeting here in Rochester at the request of the Commission's Field Director, Miss Dorothy Hunter and Commissioner Elmer Carter; Member of the Urban Commission for the Study of the Living Conditions of the Urban Population of the State of New York; Citizens Committee on Migrant Problems, State of New York; former member of the City Manager's Committee on Housing (4 years) Rochester, N. Y.; Negro Associated Press; Original Committee Member of the Committee for the Erection of the War Memorial; Charter Member of the Negro College Fund (Local) compiled Original Publicity for initial campaigns with Office in Democrat & Chronicle Building.
