Stone Canvas Pawel Lech Polkowski, 2023-03-27 This book presents proceedings of the conference devoted to rock art and graffiti studies in Egypt and Sudan that took place in Cairo from 10th to 12th November 2019 The thematic spectrum of the contributions is very wide in terms of both their geographical and their chronological range encompassing figural and textual sources dating from the Late Palaeolithic through the Predynastic Dynastic and Graeco Roman periods up to Christian and Islamic times Many of the papers combine evidence from various archaeological domains and also attempt to better integrate graffiti and rock art materials in search of a common ground for research Thus the volume provides a good overview of the current state of investigations in these two fields of study in Egypt and Nubia Apocrypha, Pseudepigrapha, and Armenian Studies: Armenian manuscripts, textual studies, and Holy Land Michael E. Stone, 2006 These volumes comprise a collection of papers by Michael E Stone written over a period of 35 years Stone is a leading scholar in two different fields of research the Jewish literature of the Second Temple period including the Dead Sea Scrolls and Armenian Studies So this collection includes essays relating to the origins and nature of the Apocryphal literature and its relationship with the Dead Sea Scrolls as well as more specific studies devoted to themes that have interested Stone throughout his career including Messianism 4 Ezra Adam and Eve and Aramaic Levi Document His Armenian interests have embraced the Armenian Biblical text Armenian pilgrimage to and presence in the Holy Land and Armenian paleography and epigraphy Papers included in the volumes some of which were originally published in obscure venues touch on all these themes A number of previously unpublished papers are included The Oxford Handbook of Egyptology Ian Shaw, Elizabeth Bloxam, 2020 The Oxford Handbook of Egyptology offers a comprehensive survey of the entire study of ancient Egypt from prehistory through to the end of the Roman period Transcending conventional boundaries between archaeological and ancient textual analysis and bringing together 63 chapters that range widely across the various archaeological philological and cultural sub disciplines authored by recognized experts in their respective fields it highlights the extent to which the discipline has diversified and stresses the need for it to seek multidisciplinary methods and broader collaborations if it is to remain contemporary and relevant Authoritative yet accessible it is an invaluable resource for scholars students and general readers alike Proceedings of the Ninth International Dakhleh Oasis Project Conference Colin A. Hope, Gillian E. Bowen, 2020-01-19 This new volume in the Oasis Papers series marks the 40th anniversary of archaeological fieldwork in the Dakhleh Oasis in Egypt's Western Desert under the leadership of Anthony J Mills and presents a synthesis of the current state of our knowledge of the oasis and its interconnections with surrounding regions especially the Nile Valley The papers are by distinguished authorities in the field and postgraduate students who specialise in different aspects of Dakhleh and presents an almost complete survey of the archaeology of Dakhleh including much unpublished original material It will be one of the few to document a specific part of modern Egypt in such detail and thus should have a broad and lasting appeal

The content of some of the papers is unlikely to be published in any other form elsewhere Dakhleh is possibly the most intensively examined wider geographic region within Egypt Egypt at Its Origins Stan Hendrickx, 2004 This volume published in memory of Barbara Adams presents 57 contributions by authors from 16 different countries and contains the results of the latest research on Predynastic and Early Dynastic Egypt In addition to papers originally presented at the 2002 conference in Krakow there are the invited contributions by the friends and colleagues of Barbara Adams including several on new discoveries from and thoughts about the site of Hierakonpolis
