Pioneer Photographers of the Far West Peter E. Palmquist, Thomas R. Kailbourn, 2000 This extraordinarily comprehensive well documented biographical dictionary of some 1 500 photographers and workers engaged in photographically related pursuits active in western North America before 1865 is enriched by some 250 illustrations Far from being simply a reference tool the book provides a rich trove of fascinating narratives that cover both the professional and personal lives of a colorful cast of characters

Suspect Identities Simon A. COLE, Simon A Cole, 2009-06-30 No two fingerprints are alike or so it goes For nearly a hundred years fingerprints have represented definitive proof of individual identity in our society We trust them to tell us who committed a crime whether a criminal record exists and how to resolve questions of disputed identity But in Suspect Identities Simon Cole reveals that the history of criminal identification is far murkier than we have been led to believe Cole traces the modern system of fingerprint identification to the nineteenth century bureaucratic state and its desire to track and control increasingly mobile diverse populations whose race or ethnicity made them suspect in the eyes of authorities In an intriguing history that traverses the globe taking us to India Argentina France England and the United States Cole excavates the forgotten history of criminal identification from photography to exotic anthropometric systems based on measuring body parts from fingerprinting to DNA typing He reveals how fingerprinting ultimately won the trust of the public and the law only after a long battle against rival identification systems As we rush headlong into the era of genetic identification and as fingerprint errors are being exposed this history uncovers the fascinating interplay of our elusive individuality police and state power and the quest for scientific certainty Suspect Identities offers a necessary corrective to blind faith in the infallibility of technology and a compelling look at its role in defining each of us
