Psychedelic White Arun Saldanha, Psychedelic White is one of the most innovative refreshingly different analyses of race I have read in the last decade Elizabeth Grosz author of The Nick of Time Politics Evolution and the Untimely The village of Anjuna located in the coastal Indian state of Goa has been one of the premier destinations on the global rave scene for nearly two decades The birthplace of Goa trance the most psychedelic variety of electronic dance music Anjuna first attracted adventurous Westerners in the 1970s who were drawn there by its tropical beaches tolerant locals and readily available drugs Today rave tourists travel to Goa to take part in round the clock dance parties and lose themselves in the crowds the music and the drugs But do they really escape where they come from and who they are A rich and theoretically sophisticated ethnography Psychedelic White explains how race plays out in Goa s white counterculture and grapples with how to make sense of racism when it is not supposed to be there Goa is a site of particularly revealing forms of interracial collision and contrary to author Arun Saldanha s expectations that the nature of rave would create an inclusive atmosphere he repeatedly witnessed stark segregation between white and Indian tourists He came to understand race in its creative dimension as a shifting and fuzzy assemblage of practices environments sounds and substances dance skills sunlight conversation cannabis and tea In doing so his work shows how the rave scene in Goa harbors conflicting tendencies regarding race The complicated intersection of cultures and phenotypes Saldanha asserts helps to consolidate whiteness Race emerges not through rigid boundaries but rather through what he terms viscosity the degree to which bodies gather together for pleasure and self transformation Challenging the prevailing conception of racial difference as a purely social construction and offering building on the works of Gilles Deleuze and Flix Guattari Psychedelic White presents nothing less than a new materialist approach to race Arun Saldanha is assistant professor of geography at the University of Minnesota

God Didn't Do It; He Only Signed Off On It Christiana I. Chineme,2010-03 As humans things happen to us sometimes that we cannot fully understand We desire to explain them when from human perspective there s no explanation that really exists Our perplexion at things of that nature are not just about when they happen to us but also the things we witness in the world around us They oftentimes shake the foundations of our faith in God to the core But as much as not knowing hurts at no time should our reaction be to accuse God for things we don t understand Rather we should know that God is not always the architect of all our problems and that He might not always save us from people that live to harm us or bless us the way we want because we take a stand with Him His promise however is one thing and that is that He ll work it all out for HIS OWN ENDS even the wicked for a day of disaster Proverbs 16 4b However your pain occurred God s declared intentions are that He ll use all of your problems any which way they present to work out His will for your life The deaths of some of the people that went before us is proof that for reasons best known to Him God at times chooses not to deliver people that take a stand with Him And it s not because He hated such people but because of what He already planned to use the situation for
