Folklore, Literature, and Cultural Theory Cathy L. Preston, 2014-06-23 First published in 1996 The need to write particularly in pre technological recording days in order to preserve and to analyze lies at the heart of folklore and yet to write means to change the medium in which much folk communication and art actually took and takes place In Part I of the collection the contributors address literary constructions of traditional and emergent cultures those of Leslie Marmon Silko Sandra Cisneros Pat Mora Carmen Tafolla Julio Cort zar Milan Kundera Franz Kafka Philip Roth Thomas Hardy and Dacia Maraini The contributors to Part II of the collection offer readings of a variety of traditional vernacular and local performances

A Marriage of Philosophy and Music Erich Welling, 2014-04 How to use philosophy and music to open your horizons and enjoy being yourself put theory to work and help you experience personal growth is discussed in A Marriage of Philosophy and Music It is all about after After having a liberal education you are comfortable in modern culture and after further education and becoming a specialist in some field you enjoy using your skills We learn the ideas and methods of many social cultures and our own chosen specialty but we often neglect the liberal art of disciplining and enjoying the ideas and methods of our own individuality This book offers a path toward the education of privacy with the key words being selection design and beauty The book relates five areas of general human interest spirituality philosophy science art and body awareness The interrelation is accomplished by using personal patterns of experience that are available from philosophy and music. Because of the plurality of subject matters and methods used in philosophy and music, their patterns of discipline are comparable to self-discipline. A Marriage of Philosophy and Music attempts to create a path in this direction because, besides the enjoyment of social culture and personal skills, there is enjoyment in being yourself, which is a neglected liberal art.
