The Tifts of Georgia John D. Fair,2010 This unique book addresses the under analyzed subject of internal migration in American historiography by showing the impact of eight generations of a family from New England on the development of Southern Georgia from the eighteenth to the end of the twentieth centuries Focusing on cross regional influences The Tifts of Georgia sheds new light on such traditional topics as paternalism cultural assimilation and race relations Originally from Mystic Connecticut the Tifts migrated to Key West Florida where they profited from the wrecking trade set up business operations at various points along the eastern coast of the United States and eventually made a significant impact on some of the less developed areas of Georgia The most important member of the family was Nelson Tift a pioneer businessman who founded the city of Albany Georgia in the 1830s and played a major role on behalf of his adopted state during the Civil War and Reconstruction His enterprises were often coordinated with his brother Asa in Key West Their nephew Henry Harding Tift founded Tifton and Tift County and Tift College in Forsyth was named for Henry s wife Bessie a major benefactor Later Tifts were not only involved in the continued development of Albany and Tifton but made significant contributions to the economy and civic life of Macon Atlanta and other communities The most important theme embodied in this monograph is how the Tifts brought Connecticut Yankee values to the South but were in turn transformed into Southerners The Tifts of Georgia is

The South and the North in American Religion Samuel S. Hill,2007-12-01 In this comparative history of religious life in the South and the North Samuel Hill considers the religions of America from a unique angle Tracing the religious history of both areas this study dramatically shows how a common religion was altered by hostilities and then continued to develop as separate entities until recently Coming almost full circle both North and South now find their religions again to be highly similar Two factors Hill believes were major influences in the diversification of the regional religions the presence of Afro Americans as an underclass of people with a distinctive role to play in the development of southern religious life and the presence or absence of a large immigrant population Hill s overall purpose is to answer the questions How did there come to be a South without which there would not have been a North Why is the South the heartland of Evangelical Protestantism and a kind of Bible belt What historical developments dispatched the two regions on distinctive courses religiously and otherwise How much interaction has there been between the religious institutions of the two regions How similar and divergent have the cultural patterns styles and values been in the South and the North
