and restoration of social order have not resonated with authors who saw social justice as a work in progress Some African American authors did take up the challenge Pauline Hopkins Rudolph Fisher and Chester Himes led the way in the first half of the 20th century followed by Ishmael Reed's anti detective novels in the 1970s Since the 1990s Walter Mosley Colson Whitehead and Stephen L Carter have written detective fiction focusing on questions of constitutional law civil rights biological and medical issues education popular culture the criminal justice system and matters of social justice From Hopkins's Hagar's Daughter published in 1901 to Hime's hardboiled Harlem Detective series to Carter's patrician world of the black bourgeoisie these authors provide a means of examining literary and social constructions of the African American experience Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here The Longman Anthology of British Literature David Damrosch,2003 The Longman Compact Anthology of British Literature is a concise and thoughtfully arranged survey of British literature Within its pages canonical authors mingle with newly visible writers English accents are heard next to Anglo Norman Welsh Gaelic and Scottish ones female and male voices are set in dialogue literature from the British Isles is integrated with post colonial writing and major works are illuminated by clusters of shorter texts that bring literary social and historical issues vividly to life Readers interested in British Literature Murder 101 Edward J.
