The Children in Our Lives Jane Adan, 1991-01-01 I was born at midnight That means I can see ghosts when they want to be invisible writes fourth grader David demonstrating a child s capacity for making sense of personal experience The Children in Our Lives explores this capacity as well as how adult misperceptions of children s experiences affect those children It invites dialogue between teachers parents other caregivers and the general public who value children for their own sakes Adan looks for disparities between a child s experience and the adult s interpretation of that experience In questioning middle class nurturance she focuses on connections between experience and interpretation based on dominant traditional or mainstream values She argues that force of habit as well as a preoccupation with public image predisposes adults to embrace the abstractions that distort perception Consequently children are impaired as adults are in their ability to generate communities that are grounded in a creative concern for all human beings International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who s Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King s Queen s Gold medal and other poetry prizes A Book of Women Poets from Antiquity to Now Alik Barnstone, Willis Barnstone, 1992-04-28 A monument to the literary genius of women throughout the ages A Book
