The Universal Magazine of Knowledge and Pleasure ,1806      Reassessing Homer in the Platonic Tradition

Christina-Panagiota Manolea,François Renaud,Harold Tarrant,2025-05-19 Plato's famous and infamous criticism of Homer was the climax of a series of attacks by early thinkers on the first and greatest Greek poet Homer. It triggers an even longer series of responses attempting either to justify further the old quarrel between philosophy poetry Pl Resp 607b c or in most cases to reconcile the two great authors. The so called Plato-Homer problem is in broad outline twofold with numberless ramifications and sub issues. Why does Plato's Republic repeatedly attack and even exile the greatest cultural authority of the Greeks? And why does he do so while quoting Homer abundantly more than any other author and even adapting many artistic features of Homeric poetry? This volume concentrates on the various responses to the controversy among Platonically minded writers while including a few other reactions from just outside that circle. Strategies of reconciliation are many including both allegorical and non allegorical approaches involving the notions of myth mimesis inspiration wisdom theology etc. The volume presents original treatments of major figures such as Porphyry and Proclus as well lesser known authors or texts e.g. Platonic Spuria and non Platonists Xenophon Aristotle scholiasts etc who serve as enlightening comparative figures. While recent literature on these questions usually concentrates on single authors this book details its reception in the Platonic tradition overall.

Henry Ives Bailey,1835      The Broadview Anthology of Seventeenth-Century Verse and Prose Alan Rudrum,Joseph Black,Holly Faith Nelson,2000-08-11 The publication of The Broadview Anthology of Seventeenth Century Verse and Prose is a literary event: this comprehensive volume is the first anthology of the period to reflect the breadth of seventeenth century studies in recent decades. Over one hundred writers are included from John Chamberlain at the beginning of the century to Elisabeth Singer Rowe at its end. There are generous selections from the work of all major writers and a representation of the work of virtually every writer of significance. The work of women writers figures prominently with extensive selections not only from canonical writers such as Behn and Bradstreet but also from other writers such as Katherine Philips and Margaret Cavendish who have been receiving considerable scholarly attention in recent years. The anthology is broadly inclusive with writing from America as well as from the British Isles. Memoirs, letters, political texts, travel writing, prophetic literature, street ballads and pamphlet literature are all here as is a full representation of the literary poetry and prose of the period including the poetry of Jonson, the prose of Bacon, the metaphysical poetry of Donne, Herbert Marvell and others, the lyric verse of Herrick and substantial selections from the poetry and prose of Milton and Dryden. While Samson Agonistes is included in its entirety, Milton's epic poems have been excluded in order to allow space for other works not so readily accessible elsewhere. The editors have included complete works wherever possible. A headnote by the editors introduces each author and each
