A Layman's Look at The Prison Epistles Reginald A. Kemp Sr, 2025-03-12 The Prison Epistles were written during Paul s imprisonment in Rome about 62-63 A D Each of these epistles were studied independently as material for teaching adult Sunday school classes Each is word by word study of the text with a definition of its meaning derived from Bible dictionaries and commentaries In effect these are inductive studies what does the text say what does it mean and how is it to be applied to one s life I was doing a review of Paul s three great missionary trips when I realized he had made at least four such trips and perhaps five His fourth trip included the two years he spent in Roman confinement and his preparation of the epistles covered by this study We have no biblical record of a possible fifth missionary trip but tradition tells us that Paul was released in Rome in 63 A D and traveled widely visiting the churches he had helped found and perhaps even traveled to Spain The introduction to this publication is a review of the details of this trip the people he encountered the public personalities he was privileged to witness to including kings governors and the elite of Rome s military It details the places visited the hardships encountered and the impact of this saint s witness for Christ

The God Journey Ricky Tutor, 2015-04-15 The Adventure in Discovering What Its All About In the beginning God created a perfect world for his children He placed them in a perfect environment where there was no such thing as sin sickness or death As parents we want the best for our children and God is no different He placed his children in a world where there was no such thing as stealing killing or destroying So why is it that when we were born we were born into an imperfect world Something happened six thousand years ago that caused a separation between God and man Now when you look at this world you are not looking at the nature of God but at the results of our sin Mankind is in rebellion with their Creator Because of this rebellion called sin our physical bodies are sentenced to death but we will live on forever either with God in heaven or without him in a place called hell In The God Journey author Ricky Tutor shares the story of how he went from a teenage troublemaker to becoming a God fearing man His calling is to share with others what its all about evidence facts and proof concerning the reality of God and true life stories of Gods perfect forgiveness Come and take a journey with Ricky as he takes you into a step by step analysis of the fall of man Gods perfect plan of redemption and how you can be confident on Judgment Day

Coakley,2006-01-18 In Women Men and Spiritual Power John Coakley explores male authored narratives of the lives of Catherine of Siena Hildegard of Bingen Angela of Foligno and six other female prophets or mystics of the late

Middle Ages His readings reveal the complex personal and literary relationships between these women and the clerics who wrote about them Coakley s work also undermines simplistic characterizations of male control over women offering an important contribution to medieval religious history Coakley shows that these male female relationships were marked by a fundamental tension between power and fascination the priests and monks were supposed to hold authority over the women entrusted to their care but they often switched roles as the men became captivated with the women s spiritual gifts In narratives of such women the male authors reflect directly on the relationship between the women s powers and their own Coakley argues that they viewed these relationships as gendered partnerships that brought together female mystical power and male ecclesiastical authority without placing one above the other Women Men and Spiritual Power chronicles a wide ranging experiment in the balance of formal and informal powers in which it was assumed to be thoroughly imaginable for both sorts of authority in their distinctly gendered terms to coexist and build on each other The men s writings reflect an extended moment in western Christianity when clerics had enough confidence in their authority to actually question its limits After about 1400 however clerics underwent a crisis of confidence and such a questioning of institutional power was no longer considered safe Instead of seeing women as partners their revelatory powers began to be viewed as evidence of witchcraft The Expositor and Current Anecdotes ,1910 The Christian Workers Magazine ,1918
