With richly reproduced illustrations it provides powerful insight not only to scholars of art history and academics but also to working artists and those who count themselves as Man Ray fans.

Man Ray, American Artist Neil Baldwin, 1988. Man Ray is the quintessential modernist figure: painter, sculptor, objectmaker and collagist, photographer, printmaker and filmmaker, poet, essayist and philosopher. One of the most important and enigmatic Man Ray. Man Ray, Katherine Ware, 2012. This book deals with the creator of Surrealist Photography. Man Ray (1890–1976) is indisputably one of the most original artists of the 20th century. His revolutionary nude studies, fashion work and portraits opened a new chapter in the history of photography. Man Ray. Man Ray, Janus, 1997. Presents photographs, sculpture, paintings and other works of art created by this twentieth-century artist. Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art. Julia Kelly, 2017-07-05. Taking its departure point from the 1933 surrealist photographs of involuntary sculptures by Brassaï and Dalí, Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art offers fresh perspectives on the sculptural object by relating it to both surrealist concerns with chance and the crucial role of photography in framing the everyday. This collection of essays questions the nature of sculptural practice, looking to forms of production and reproduction that blur the boundaries between things that are made and things that are found. One of the book's central themes is the interplay of presence and absence in sculpture as it is highlighted, disrupted or multiplied through photography's indexical nature. The essays examine the surrealist three-dimensional object, its relation to and transformation through photographs as well as the enduring legacies of such concerns for the artwork's materiality and temporality in performance and conceptual practices from the 1960s through the present. Found Sculpture and Photography sheds new light on the shifts in status of the art object, challenging the specificity of visual practices pursuing a radical interrogation of agency in modern and contemporary practices and exploring the boundaries between art and everyday life.

Man Ray: Woman Walter Guadagnini, Giangavino Pazzola, 2020-01-08. Man Ray, surrealist master and exponent of the Dada movement, managed to reinvent not only the photographic language but also the representation of the body and face as well as the genres of the nude and the portrait themselves. This book brings together around 200 photographs produced from the 1920s right up to his death in 1976, all featuring female subjects. Through rayographs, solarisations and double exposures, the female body undergoes a continual metamorphosis of forms and meanings, becoming an abstract form, an object of seduction, classical memory or realistic portrait in endless playful and refined variations. Among the protagonists of his shots are Lee Miller, Berenice Abbott, Dora Maar and Juliet, a lifelong companion to whom is dedicated the amazing The Fifty Faces of Juliet portfolio (1943–1944). But these women were in turn great artists, as evidence is presented here: a corpus of works dating back to the time between the 1930s and 40s of their most direct association with Man Ray and with the environment of the Dada avant-garde and Parisian surrealism. This volume offers a wide survey of one of the most exuberant periods of the 20th century with authentic masterpieces of photographic art such as the Electricite portfolios 1931 and the very rare Les mannequins Resurrection des mannequins 1938 00Exhibition CAMERA Turin Italy 17 10 2019 19 01 2020
