1. INTRODUCTION

Education is one of the ways to build a smart, prosperous society. Education must have the option of forming an individual society that is described as a personal characteristic that understands its psychosocial elements and social environment [1]. Indonesia which is wrong one country in the world that has various Island area which large, naturally effective transportation and efficient like safe, cheap, smooth, fast, easy, regular as well as comfortable. In development naturally there is a need for transportation more efficient as condition guaranteed implementation development in the something country, development the naturally supported with existence means, transportation which adequate. Country Indonesia, which has been known as a country maritime form, role in transportation the sea is very important in social life economy. Where factor economical which he wanted so that in sector transportation sea could achieved with unity payload good payload bulk or payload non bulk, naturally required also the type of ship according to the type payload which later will transported equipped with loading and unloading equipment sufficient. All of this can be achieved if planning nor planning a harbor be equipped with technology which appropriate and implementation operational harbor supported by means as well as infrastructure which more adequate (Tini Utami [2]).

In Thing these roles and activities carried out in the port becomes very strategic for increase growth economy and trade industry, in addition to that Make a greater contribution to domestic and international economic development. This will certainly have an impact on the management of the port business sector so that operations can be carried out efficiently, effectively and of course professionally, so that port services can run smoothly, quickly and safely at an affordable cost, time, the port as the sea part of the trade port gateway, trade gateway and other related interests. Cargo transported on board will then be unloaded and transferred to other means such as air, land (trucks, trailers or trains) for distribution to the public. Cargo that has been transported by truck or train to the port of unloading will be reloaded onto the ship. (Tini Utami [2])

So, with thereby the goods being transported with use transportation heavy for example is trucks and so on, and moreover with demolish load at the port, then at the port is happens many mechanisms for example is immigration duty excise duty, harbor master and so on. So why many observers state that the Port is one infrastructure impactful transportation in increase economy something derah, fine province nor a country because the Port is gate and door enter the country 's economy or called the gateway port transportation system as well as logistics.

With existence Term "axis maritime" now the more popular and interesting attention many parties, no except media mass which also often bring up term the in the news in time- time lately this. Bring it up term the no miss from idea President Joko Widodo (Jokowi) which want to make Indonesia as axis maritime world. According to President RI 7th the, as put forward in his speech after inauguration in front Assembly Deliberation People (MPR), 20 October 2014, "our has too long back-to-back sea, back to back ocean, and turned his back on the straits and bays, and now it's time our return everything so ' Kembalikan Jayabaya ', in the sea precisely our
