Man The Triune God 193:

A Soul Prepared for Heaven W. Britt Stokes, 2022-06-13 From his first publication of hymns in 1707 common knowledge regarding Isaac Watts 1674 1748 often revolves around his hymn writing legacy Though Watts legacy as a hymnographer is significant he also functions as a key transitional figure between the English Puritans and the Evangelicals during eighteenth century English dissent As a pastor theologian philosopher and literary mainstay of his era Watts influence grew well beyond his early work in hymnody to impact scores of Christians on both sides of the Atlantic Watts approach to Christian spirituality is an area of his thought that's been unexplored This book provides the first ever analysis of Watts theological vision for the Christian spiritual life In emphasizing the experience of holiness and happiness Watts leans heavily upon his Reformed theological heritage to underscore how knowing and loving God are central to God's preparation of the soul for heaven The Doctrine of Salvation in the Sermons of Richard Hooker Corneliu C. Simut, 2012-02-14 This specialist work in historical theology deals with the doctrine of salvation in the early theology of Richard Hooker 1554 1600 from the perspective of the concept of faith and with Hooker's connections to the early English Reformers W Tyndale J Frith R Barnes T Cranmer J Bradford and J Foxe in crucial teachings such as justification sanctification glorification election reprobation the sovereignty of God and salvation of Catholics The study proves that Hooker's theology is firstly Protestant to counter the views which picture it as Catholic and secondly Calvinist Communion with the Triune God Dick O. Eugenio, 2014-03-03

The revival of Trinitarian studies in the twentieth century ushered in a new era of theological innovation The renewed and dedicated articulation of the Trinity as a doctrine in its own right is indeed noteworthy but more important and praiseworthy are the recent endeavors of theologians in integrating the doctrine of the Trinity with other Christian doctrines and with the many variegated aspects of the life and ministries of the church Today it is common to encounter the term Trinitarian being used as a modifier Trinitarian worship Trinitarian ecclesiology etc This book presents Thomas F Torrance as a participant theologian in this integrative paradigm Because Torrance argues that the Trinity is the ground and grammar of theology his doctrine of salvation is consistently Trinitarian But how did he formulate his unique Trinitarian soteriology This book attempts to spell this out

The natural genesis: or second part of A book of the beginnings Gerald Massey, 1883 Zinoviy Otenskiy and the Trinitarian Controversy in Sixteenth-Century Russia Viacheslav V. Lytvynenko, Mikhail V. Shpakovsky, 2023-03-13 In Zinoviy Otenskiy and the Trinitarian Controversy Viacheslav V Lytvynenko and Mikhail V Shpakovskiy offer the first English edition of two major Slavic works written by the eminent Russian theologian Zinoviy Otenskiy d 1571 2 The selected texts represent our chief source on the Trinitarian controversy in sixteenth century Russia and reveal Zinoviy as a man of profound theological thinking and Biblical exegesis The authors provide a detailed and welcome overview of the history of the Trinitarian controversy and the role that Zinoviy played in it. The readers will find here a comprehensive discussion of the issues related to the history of the edited texts Zinoviy's sources and his doctrines of the Trinity, Christ and salvation.

Confessional Lutheranism and German Theological Wissenschaft
 James Ambrose Lee II, 2022-01-19. This book investigates the relationship between nineteenth century German theological Wissenschaft and the emergence of confessional Lutheranism. It argues that the first generation of confessional Lutherans contributed to the discourse over the nature of theological Wissenschaft. Part I examines the intellectual context of nineteenth century theological Wissenschaft. Chapter 2 presents Kant's and Schelling's conceptions of Wissenschaft in relationship to theology. Chapter 3 analyzes Schleiermacher's contribution to the debate about the integrity of theology as a Wissenschaft and concludes by considering the developments represented by F. C. Baur and Albrecht Ritschl. Part II investigates the different Lutheran approaches to theological Wissenschaft represented by Adolf Harle, August Vilmar and Johannes von Hofmann. Chapter 4 examines Harle's Theologische Encyclopädie as the first expression towards a confessional Lutheran Wissenschaft. Chapter 5 highlights Vilmar's antagonistic posture towards modern German theology while attending to his construction of an alternative approach to modern theology. Chapters 6 and 7 contextualize Hofmann against the landscape of German theology while situating his theological Wissenschaft within his contentious work Der Schriftbeweis. Chapter 8 reflects upon these efforts at establishing a theological Wissenschaft in service to the church and the university.

Election, Atonement, and the Holy Spirit
 Matthias Grebe, 2014-11-06. This book examines the doctrines of election and atonement in Karl Barth's Church Dogmatics, taking up Barth's own challenge to his reader to surpass his argument and offer a better typological interpretation of the cultic texts. Barth's radical reworking of Calvin's doctrine of election is one of the most important developments in twentieth century theology. Christ synthesizes for Barth a particular dialectic: the binary structure of God's Yes of election and God's No of rejection. The book's central question: how can Jesus simultaneously be both the elected and the rejected? CD II/2, acting as both the judge and the judged. CD IV/1 is followed by an exploration of the roles of the Holy Spirit and human freedom in God's electing and saving action. Commentators both acknowledge Barth's innovation in this area and identify problems with his approach, but few have offered what David Ford has called a correction from within Barth using Barth's own method. Using the concept of Existenzstellvertretung, this critique of Barth's exegetical justification for the doctrines offers an alternative exegesis that not only provides this much needed correction but also immerses the reader in a fresh engagement with Scripture itself.

Engaging the Doctrine of Marriage
 Matthew Levering, 2020-08-12. This book is the next volume in Levering's Engaging Doctrine series. The prior volume of the series examined the doctrine of creation. The present volume examines the purpose of creation: the marriage of God and humans. God created the cosmos for the purpose of the marriage of God and his people, and through his people, the marriage of God and the entire creation. Given that the central meaning or prime analogate of marriage is the marriage of God and humankind the study of human marriage needs to be shaped by this eschatological goal and foregrounded as a dogmatic theme After a first chapter defending and explaining the biblical witness to the marriage of God and his people the book explores various themes marriage as an image of God original sin as the fall of the primordial marriage the cross of Jesus Christ and marital self sacrificial love the procreative and unitive ends of marriage marriage as a sacrament and marriage s importance for social justice and for the upbuilding of the kingdom of God Along the way the book provides an introduction to the key biblical patristic medieval modern and contemporary thinkers and controversies regarding the doctrine of marriage

A Third Collection Bernard Lonergan, Lonergan Research Institute, 2017-03-17 A Third Collection prepared for the Collected Works of Bernard Lonergan by editors Robert M Doran and John D Dadosky is a helpful companion to volumes four and thirteen in the series The volume contains fifteen papers written between 1974 and 1982 and includes some of his most important shorter writings such as Prolegomena to the Study of the Emerging Religious Consciousness of Our Time and Natural Right and Historical Mindedness The relevant archival entries are specified so that readers can consult them The papers in this volume rehearse in a new key the themes of a lifetime Without in any way going back on the major emphases of Lonergan s early work cognitional theory and then the exploration of a fourth existential level of consciousness they are focused more on love and on the movement from above downwards in consciousness Community is emphasized as the context and the fruit of the emergence of authentic subjects

Systematic Theology Augustus Hopkins Strong, 1902 The Ministry, Vol. 10, No. 02 Various Authors, 2006-03-01 This issue of The Ministry contains a complete record of the nine messages given during the 2005 International Training for Elders and Responsible Ones in Moscow Russia in October 2005 The general subject of the training was the vision of the Lord s recovery and its application The burden for these messages can be summarized in the following four statements 1 the true vine Christ the Son with the believers in the Son as the branches is the organism of the Triune God in the Son for His multiplication spreading and glorification in the divine life 2 we must stay on the way of life the line of life in the maintenance of life by enjoying Christ as the tree of life in the flow of life for God s building in life by our growth in life 3 the kingdom of God is constituted with God s life as the realm of the divine life for His ruling in which He reigns by His life and expresses Himself as the Divine Trinity in the divine life and 4 the intrinsic significance of the golden lampstand is the highest peak of the divine revelation the subjective experience of the golden lampstand is the God man living and the organic maintenance of the golden lampstand is Christ s shepherding in His heavenly ministry We also include a report concerning the Lord s move in Ghana and Nigeria West Africa

Competing Fundamentalisms Sathianathan Clarke, 2017-03-29 Why do certain groups and individuals seek to do harm in the name of God While studies often claim to hold the key to this frightening phenomenon they seldom account for the crucial role that religious conviction plays not just in radical Islam but also in the fundamentalist branches of the world s two other largest religions Christianity and Hinduism

As the first book to examine violent extremism in all three religions together Competing Fundamentalisms draws on studies in sociology psychology culture and economics while focusing on the central role of religious ideas to paint a richer portrait of this potent force in modern life Clarke argues that the forces of globalization fuel the aggression of these movements to produce the competing feature of religious fundamentalisms which have more in common with their counterparts across religious lines than they do with the members of their own religions He proposes ways to deescalate religious violence in the service of peacemaking Readers will gain important insights into how violent religious fundamentalism works in the world's three largest religions and learn new strategies for promoting peace in the context of contemporary interreligious conflict

Christology in the Indian Anthropological Context Mathew Vekathanam, Karl Rahner, Wolfhart Pannenberg, 1986 This work is a contribution towards the developing Indian Christology The mystery of Christ is discussed in the context of the Indian anthropology especially of the Vedanta with special emphasis on the Christological contributions of some of the prominent Indian thinkers both Christian and non Christian There is also a serious and successful attempt made here to bring the Indian anthropo Christological problematic into a critical and dialogical encounter especially with two knowledgeable representatives of the German theological milieu Karl Rahner and Wolfhart Pannenberg showing the complementary nature as well as the irreconcilable aspects of the various Christological views The approach here is dialectical critical sufficiently differentiated very systematic and clear The missiological and dialogico ecumenical implications of this work are also of considerable importance
