Man Who Met The Train:

The Historic Murder Trial of George Crawford David Bradley, 2014-06-10 The Depression era murder trial of George Crawford in Northern Virginia helped end the exclusion of African Americans from juries Nearly forgotten today the murders ensuing manhunt extradition battle and sensational trial enthralled the nation Before it was over the U S House of Representatives threatened to impeach a federal judge the age old states rights debate was renewed and a rift nearly split the fledgling NAACP In the end the story s hero Howard University Law School dean Charles Hamilton Houston was the subject of public ridicule from critics who had little understanding of the inner workings of the case This book puts the Crawford murder trial in its fullest context side by side with relevant events of the time Men, Women, and Boats Stephen Crane, 2015-12-01 Though he is today best remembered as the author of the classic Civil War novel The Red Badge of Courage American author Stephen Crane was widely lauded as one of the foremost practitioners of the short story format in the early twentieth century This fine collection brings together a number of his most highly regarded short tales including the largely autobiographical account of the aftermath of a shipwreck The Open Boat My Life / Inside Out Angelo R. Avila, Jr., 2013-02-26 My unstructured upbringing and cares to the wind attitude led to my frequent incarceration from childhood to adulthood it s a disturbing story which is primarily aimed at the adult reading audience who enjoy reading about reality situations and crime I have always been a reader and to a large extent that helped me become a self taught person Born on the banks of the Colorado River in Arizona and raised up in the Marcos De Niza barrio projects in South Phoenix I experienced the injustices of the cotton fields Maricopa County Juvenile Detention Home and Arizona State Industrial School at Fort Grant Arizona I wandered the desperate streets of Los Angeles and the forlorn railroad tracks alone like a lost person without a purpose in life I was locked up in the jails of Phoenix and Los Angeles before winding up in the California State penitentiary system Upon my release I struggled to stay out of the pen and took the jobs that society at large would never want to take Through numerous personal tragedies incarcerations and unfortunate circumstances I lost control of my life No one was ever able to change my destructive behavior The changes when they occurred came from within me when I could no longer cope with the situations I had cast my self into Looking back I can now see what I couldn t see during those hopeless time periods I was very fortunate to finally be able to leave that life behind me through relationships that believed in me and successfully worked and built myself a civil service work career from which I retired I now spend my days enjoying life s simple pleasures after all my previous tragic missteps My objective in life now is to become an accomplished writer The Railroad Telegrapher, 1919 IT'S MIDNIGHT IN BERLIN Pat McMann Gilchrist, 2013-08-27 It s Midnight In Berlin A True Story of An American Girl in War Torn Germany 1946 47 By Pat McMann Gilchrist Pat was a 22 year old college graduate who signed with the War Department to go to Germany as a civilian to work for the U S Military Government in Berlin It was only a few months after World War II had ended and one fourth of the city of Berlin had been destroyed She
