Man With Nowhere To Go:

Halfway House Liam Martin, 2021-10-19 Halfway House draws on three and a half years of intensive ethnographic fieldwork to open a window on the little known web of organizations governing prisoner reentry at the frontier of mass incarceration. It tells the story of Joe Badillo along with a small cast of connected characters by following the ups and downs of his unfolding experience as he leaves jail and searches for a place in the world outside while confronting overwhelming obstacles. Joe's first stop after release is Bridge House and the author moves into the program as a researcher around the same time he arrives the beginnings of the long term collaboration at the heart of the book. This deeply personal account is weaved into a larger analysis of the halfway house as an institution, a site of punishment and carceral control as well as housing and social support. With a national push underway for decarceration and alternatives to imprisonment, it provides an opportunity to rethink the pitfalls and possibilities of using the halfway house to challenge the worst excesses of mass incarceration.

Nothing Chick Gallin, 2012-07-13 Follow the NYPD, FBI and the Department of Defense while they mount an all out search for a band of relentless killers hired by an international syndicate to invade homes of high level executives and steal their top secret information. The exciting climax will leave the readers wanting more.

Beach Time Charles Mitchell, 2005-02 Beach Time is a powerful collection of stories weaving a tapestry of the shore as a place of reflection, a sanctuary for addressing life's challenges and opportunities and as a point of departure for life's many journeys. Whether finding romance among the canals and lanes of magical Venice, facing life, death and ghosts along the Carolina coasts, honeymooning in the south of Portugal or solving mysteries in the Greek isles, the stories will hold your interest across the miles and years. Additional tales speak to youth's desire to find direction in life, whether in the beach towns of Florida, at a Buddhist shrine on Cheju Island, Korea or along the North Shore of Oahu. Darker tales reveal how outcasts prey upon the young or confused in the chaos of the beach. Beach Time by the author of Hues of Tokyo can be read straight through, engaging the themes linking the stories, or each story can be cherished individually as you travel to multiple shores in the US, Asia and Europe to be entertained by whimsical tales that both amuse and provoke deep thought about life's relationship with that in between space where the land meets the sea and the sky.
