Authors and the World Rebecca Braun,2022-07-14 Authors and the World traces how four core modes of authorship have developed and inflect one another in modern Germany through a series of twenty different case studies including the work of Thomas Mann G nter Grass Anna Seghers Walter H llerer Felicitas Hoppe and Katja Petrowskaja and original interview material with contemporary writers Ulrike Draesner Olga Martynova and Ulrike Almut Sandig Modes of authorship are attitudes taken towards being an author that can be seen both in what an individual author does and in how a particular literary tradition or trend is perceived and mediated by others both within and beyond Pierre Bourdieu s literary field Consequently they deliberately straddle questions of literary production and reception Rebecca Braun sets out how the commemorative celebratory utopian and satirical modes interact with one another to produce a number of models of authorship that carry either foundational or otherwise normative force for society In varying combinations and with deep roots in 19th and early 20th century practices the four modes of authorship create a remarkably and at times troublingly stable German literature network that to a large degree still determines the way contemporary German speaking authors enact their cultural significance in their writing engage with their local circumstances and are more broadly received around
