of this original and influential thinker The Selected Essays of Donald Greene Donald Johnson Greene, 2004 Part III The Terrain of Literature features Greene's examination of a variety of literary approaches to literature in an era when the subject needs to be referred as well to cognitive science as more conventional critical modes even deconstruction that have long defined it. Additionally, he illuminates important works by writers as various as Jane Austen and Evelyn Waugh. These essays as well as the book as a whole are framed here by Greene's assessment of Canadian literature that calls attention to the native terrain that he originally called home and how the latter contributed to the making of one of the most cosmopolitan scholars of his era. Jacket Music, Film, and Art Haig A. Khatchadourian, 2010-07-01 Music Film Art presents 13 lively essays on current issues in aesthetics and philosophy of the arts from classifying a work as good or poor to the difficulties contemporary audiences face in attempting to understand and appreciate the avant garde. Offering fresh insights on music, painting and film as well as literature, dance, theater and sculpture, this thought-provoking volume will be of considerable interest to the serious general reader and to students, critics and aestheticians.
