Racehoss Albert Sample, 2018-05-22 A timeless classic San Antonio Express News reissued with a new foreword afterword and ten percent more material about a black man who spent seventeen years on a brutal Texas prison plantation and underwent a remarkable transformation First published in 1984 Racehoss Big Emma's Boy is Albert Race Sample's unforgettable The Dallas Morning News tale of resilience revelation and redemption Born in 1930 the mixed race son of a hard drinking black prostitute and a white cotton broker Sample was raised in the Jim Crow South by an abusive mother who refused to let her son who could pass for white call her Mama He watched for the police while she worked whether as a prostitute bootlegger or running the best dice game in town He loved his mother deeply but could no longer take her abuse and ran away from home at the age of twelve In his early twenties Sample was arrested for burglary robbery and robbery by assault and was sentenced to nearly twenty years in the Texas prison system in the 1950s and 60s His light complexion made him stand out in the all black prison plantation known as the burnin hell where he and over four hundred prisoners picked cotton and worked the land while white shotgun carrying guards followed on horseback Sample earned the moniker Racehoss for his ability to hoe cotton faster than anyone else in his squad A profound spiritual awakening in solitary confinement was a decisive moment for him and he became determined to turn his life around When he was finally released in 1972 he did just that Though Sample was incarcerated in the twentieth century his memoir reads like it came from the nineteenth With new stories that had been edited out of the first edition a foreword by Texas attorney and writer David R Dow and an afterword by Sample s widow Carol this new edition of Racehoss Big Emma s Boy offers a more complete picture of this extraordinary time in America s recent past
