Cartoons Kit Schluter, 2024-05-21 One of The Millions Most Anticipated Books for Spring Set in the uncanny valley between Bugs Bunny and Franz Kafka Cartoons is an explosive series of outrageous absurdist tales The true surrealist is unblinking convulsive and cheerfully open to the mysterious flow into their texts of mythic and archetypal elements operating beyond their conscious control In Cartoons Kit Schluter vaults into the zone of Julio Cortázar Richard Brautigan and late Giorgio di Chirico where the reader breathes the air of pure freedom attained rattling inside the chains of self Jonathan Lethem author of Motherless Brooklyn More than simply a book Cartoons proposes itself as a genre of imaginary writing in opposition to the realism of most contemporary U S fiction aligning itself with the French symbolism and Latin American fabulism its author is known to translate A giant cricket with a tiny Kit Schluter in a jar The Girl Who Is a Piece of Paper an umbrella who confuses the words porpoise and purpose in its quest for self fulfillment these are just a few denizens of its pages suffused with a fairy tale like animism A pair of slugs go on a bender A microwave oven decries microaggressions A beer bottle is filled with regret An escalator mechanic's shoe conceals a terrible secret As befits its title Cartoons defies the laws of physics and fiction alike eschewing tonal consistency in favor of a simultaneity of joy and horror ecstasy and disgust wrapped in an extravagant layer of black humor The stories blur the boundary between microfiction and poet's prose featuring impossible transformations and surrealistic events even as they wrestle with urgent psychic and moral dilemmas Heightening the atmosphere of pervasive unreality are a number of drawings by the author which don't so much illustrate as parallel the tales with their own fantastic scenarios

The 158-Pound Marriage John Irving, 2018-05-15 Irving looks cunningly beyond the eye-catching gyrations of the mating dance to the morning after implications The Washington Post The darker vision and sexual ambiguities of this sensual ironic tale about a ménage à quatre in a New England university town foreshadow those of The World According to Garp but this very trim and precise novel is a marked departure from the author's generally robust boisterous style Though Mr Irving's cool eye spares none of his foursome he writes with genuine compassion for the sexual tests and illusions they perpetrate on each other but the sexual intrigue between them demonstrates how even the kind can be ungenerous and even the well intentioned destructive One of the most remarkable things about John Irving's first three novels viewed from the vantage of The World According to Garp is that they can be read as one extended fictional enterprise The 158 Pound Marriage is as lean and concentrated as a mine shaft Terrence Des Pres Deft hard hitting What Irving demonstrates beautifully is that a one to one relationship is more demanding than a free for all

and the elfin army was massed standing at attention in the middle of a clearing of the forest At the head of this army of about two hundred archers and three hundred swordsmen were two figures with armor alike yet unlike the other soldiers One was a tall standing young looking elf woman holding a broadsword to her front with both hands casually on the handle the blade in the ground She was wearing a shiny crown of silver and gold on her head and her long white hair was done in one thick braid at her back that reached down to the base of her spine Her armor was somewhat heavy finely made and was of good shiny steel lined with gold that covered most of her body What didn't cover her body revealed a dress underneath that was made of either silk or something like it Standing next to her was a slightly shorter and younger woman who had features like the other Her armor was a little skimpier but of the same material Steel bracers around her forearms as well as somewhat long steel boots gave her limbs some protection The rest was a chest plate and an Aegis chain skirt that went down to her knees Aegis being a special metal made entirely by elves The skirt has individual scaled plates of its own and both the chest plate and skirt together exposed her midsection On her head was a tiara All of the armor was fit perfectly to her small but muscular tone frame Her hair was blond and short barely reaching her elegant shoulders and was combed back She stood there beside the older woman with two elegantly curved short swords held backward in each hand The army stood in wait on top of a hill overlooking a dark fort a half a mile away surrounded by numerous monsters of many types and configurations but all an ugly twisted human form The two women in front stood there for the longest time saying nothing and not moving an inch All that could be heard was the sound of thunder and the rain hitting their armor Just then the silence was broken by the eldest woman in front She said Neiren The younger woman turned to her in response I want you to do something for me The younger woman looked at her with deep concern
