Interpreting Straw Man Argumentation Fabrizio

Macagno, Douglas Walton, 2017-09-06 This book shows how research in linguistic pragmatics philosophy of language and rhetoric can be connected through argumentation to analyze a recognizably common strategy used in political and everyday conversation namely the distortion of another's words in an argumentative exchange Straw man argumentation refers to the modification of a position by misquoting misreporting or wrenching the original speaker's statements from their context in order to attack them more easily or more effectively Through 63 examples taken from different contexts including political and forensic discourses and dialogs and 20 legal cases the book analyzes the explicit and implicit types of straw man shows how to assess the correctness of a quote or a report and illustrates the arguments that can be used for supporting an interpretation and defending against a distortion The tools of argumentation theory a discipline aimed at investigating the uses of arguments by combining insights from pragmatics logic and communication are applied to provide an original account of interpretation and reporting and to describe and illustrate tactics and procedures that can be used and implemented for practical purposes This book will appeal to scholars in the fields of political communication communication in general argumentation theory rhetoric and pragmatics as well as to people working in public speech speech writing and discourse analysis The Korowai of Irian Jaya Gerrit J. van Enk, Lourens de Vries, 1997-07-03 Irian Jaya is the official name of the western half of New Guinea a province of Indonesia since the 1960s Its inhabitants are generally untouched by civilization and most of their hundreds of native languages and cultures remain unstudied Van Enk and de Vries gained access to one of the most isolated parts of Irian Jaya in order to study the Korowai a tribe in southern Irian Jaya The Korowai still use stone tools live in tree houses and have no knowledge of the outside world Van Enk and de Vries provide the first study of the Korowai language and culture They reproduce oral texts that show patterns of grammar discourse and culture and discuss the phonological morphological and syntactical aspects of the language In the process van Enk and de Vries reveal a number of key semantic fields and conceptual patterns such as kinship counting the role of lunar phases and
