Man With The Movie Camera The Film Companion:

Nikita Mikhalkov Birgit Beumers, 2004-11-26 Adored by Russian audiences for his commercially oriented films and loathed by the Russian intelligentsia for the same Nikita Mikhalkov is one of the most successful ambitious and controversial film directors in the history of Soviet and Russian cinema Revealing and discussing the key themes explored in his work Birgit Beumers follows his career from his 1974 debut At Home Among Strangers a Stranger at Home through to the French co productions the award winning Urga and the internationally renowned Oscar winning Burnt by the Sun 1994 Kira Muratova Jane Taubman, 2004-11-26 Kira Muratova is a respected and original contemporary film director yet her earliest works were not welcomed when they were shown just after the end of Brezhnev s period of stagnation Only in 1987 in one of the first breaths of perestroika were these movies re released sending Muratova from talented pariah to celebrity almost overnight Drawing from interviews with Muratova herself and her friends unpublished scripts and interviews with audiences Taubman traces the progress of Muratova s career looking closely at each of her films including the 1990 masterpiece Asthenic Syndrome She also surveys critical reaction to her films both in Russia and the West Alexander Medvedkin Emma Widdis, 2004-11-26 This first introduction to Medvedkin s film making career traces his process of developing a unique brand of cinematic satire throughout the period of the Soviet revolutionary experiment Using original archival material and Medvedkin s writings towards his unfinished autobiography Widdis explores his films from the 1936 The Miracle Worker through the unreleased New Moscow of 1938 and the experimental film train or kinopoezd up to the rediscovery of his 1934 film Happiness in the 1960s Dmitri Shostakovich John Riley, 2004-11-26 Of all the major Soviet composers who worked in the cinema the most prominent was Dmitri Shostakovich who in addition to over a hundred works for the stage and concert hall wrote scores for almost forty films Yet despite his reputation this work when not completely overlooked has been poorly judged by the same criteria as his other music Likewise while much attention has been paid to Soviet film the crucial role played by the scores is all too often forgotten This the first book in English to look at Shostakovich s cinema career discusses every film he scored looking at the films themselves tracing their relationship to the changing concerns and policies of the Soviet state and examining how the music works in context John Riley also gives a fascinating account of the composer s life This highly readable book will be welcomed equally by devotees of the composer those interested in Soviet culture and cinema and general film music enthusiasts World Cinema and the Essay Film Brenda Hollweg, 2019-05-29 World Cinema and the Essay Film examines the ways in which essay film practices are deployed by non Western filmmakers in specific local and national contexts in an interconnected world The book identifies the essay film as a political and ethical tool to reflect upon and potentially resist the multiple often contradictory effects of globalization With case studies of essayistic works by John Akomfrah Nguyen Trinh Thi and Apichatpong Weerasethakul amongst many others and with a photo essay by Trinh T Min ha and a discussion of Frances Calvert s work it expands current research on the essay film beyond
