Manabozhos Gifts Three Chippewa Tales:

The Story of the Chippewa Indians Gregory O. Gagnon, 2018-11-26 This single volume book provides a narrative history of the Chippewa tribe with attention to tribal origins achievements and interactions within the United States Unlike previous works that focus on the relationships of the Chippewa with the colonial governments of France Great Britain and the United States this volume offers a historical account of the Chippewa with the tribe at its center The volume covers Chippewa history chronologically from about 10 000 BC to the present and is geographically comprehensive detailing Chippewa history as it occurred in both Canada and the United States from the Great Lakes to Montana to adjacent Canadian provinces Written by a Chippewa scholar the book synthesizes key scholarly contributions to Chippewa studies through the author's own interpretive framework and tells the history of the Chippewa as a story that encompasses the culture's traditions and continued tenacity It is organized into chronological chapters that include sidebars and highlight notable figures for ease of reference and a timeline and bibliography allow readers to identify causal relationships among key events and provide suggestions for further research

Emergent U.S. Literatures Cyrus Patell, 2014-11-07 Emergent U.S. Literatures introduces readers to the foundational writers and texts produced by four literary traditions associated with late twentieth century US multiculturalism Examining writing by Native Americans Hispanic Americans Asian Americans and gay and lesbian Americans after 1968 Cyrus R. K. Patell compares and historicizes what might be characterized as the minority literatures within U.S. minority literature Drawing on recent theories of cosmopolitanism Patell presents methods for mapping the overlapping concerns of the texts and authors of these literatures during the late twentieth century He discusses the ways in which literary marginalization and cultural hybridity combine to create the grounds for literature that is truly emergent in Raymond Williams's sense of the term literature that produces new meanings and values new practices new relationships and kinds of relationships in tension with the dominant mainstream culture of the United States By enabling us to see the American literary canon through the prism of hybrid identities and cultures these texts require us to reevaluate what it means to write and read in the American grain Emergent U.S. Literatures gives readers a sense of how these foundational texts work as aesthetic objects rather than merely as sociological documents crafted in dialogue with the canonical tradition of so-called American Literature as it existed in the late twentieth century as well as in dialogue with each other society Christopher Bigsby discusses American dramatists from Tennessee Williams to August Wilson showing how innovations in theatre anticipated a world of emerging countercultures and provided America with an alternative view of contemporary life Morris Dickstein describes the condition of rebellion in fiction from 1940 to 1970 linking writers as diverse as James Baldwin and John Updike John Burt examines writers of the American South describing the tensions between modernization and continued entanglements with the past Wendy Steiner examines the postmodern fictions since 1970 and shows how the questioning of artistic assumptions has broadened the canon of American literature Finally Cyrus Patell highlights the voices of Native American Asian American Chicano gay and lesbian writers often marginalized but here discussed within and against a broad set of national traditions
