Human Resource Management in Higher Education Institutions Sylwia Przytuła, Łukasz Sułkowski, Konrad Kulikowski, 2024-10-02 In an era marked by increasing globalization international competition digitalization and social and cultural changes higher education institutions HEIs play a pivotal role in establishing the knowledge based economy of each country which is perceived as its soft power The need to explore and highlight the specificity of human resource management HRM practices in higher education institutions has become urgent and evident This book provides new theoretical and practical insights into HRM in HEIs A profound analysis of the global literature clearly exposes that human resource practices are often applied in academia as single solutions rather than as a systematic approach to planning attracting motivating developing and retaining scientists The global trends in academia such as the need for branding and positioning in higher education ranking systems growing retention and brain circulation between academia and business diversity in academia and the digitalization of teaching have resulted in challenges such as de recruitment academic burnout and ill being and technostress which are also addressed in this book International Handbook of Higher Education James J.F. Forest, Philip G. Altbach, 2008-01-18 This book provides a central authoritative source of reference on the most essential topics of higher education The International Handbook of Higher Education combines a rich diversity of scholarly perspectives with a wide range of internationally derived descriptions and analyses Chapters in the first volume cover central themes in the study of higher education while contributors to the second volume focuses on contemporary higher education issues within specific countries or regions Together these volumes provide a centralized easily accessible yet scholarly source of information Leadership and Management: Case Studies in Training in Higher Education in Africa Johann Mouton, Lauren Wildschut, 2015-08-06 There has been a resurgence of interest in training programmes for higher education leaders and management HELM at African universities in recent times Although there have been a few cases of evaluation studies of such programmes in Africa a more systematic review of the lessons learnt through these programmes has not been done This book aims to document and reflect on the learnings from intervention programmes at three African higher education councils It is clear that university leaders face many leadership and management challenges This is the starting point of the book Changing Governance and Management in Higher Education William Locke, William K. Cummings, Donald Fisher, 2011-06-01 External drivers are pressing for a more privatized approach to higher education and research a greater reliance on technology and the more efficient use of resources This book analyzes recent changes in institutional governance and management in higher education and their impact on the academy and academic work It draws on findings from an international study based on a survey of academics in eighteen countries It opens with a chapter outlining the key issues drivers and challenges that inform contemporary discourse around academic work and the profession in general It then focuses on national case studies comparing changes in the top tier with the lower tiers of national systems public and private institutions and other differentiating factors appropriate in each country which include mature and emerging higher education systems It concludes by proposing a series of generalizations about the contemporary status of governance and management of institutions of higher education The Governance and Management of Universities in Asia Chang Da Wan, Molly N.N. Lee, Hoe Yeong Loke, 2019-03-29 This volume seeks to identify and explore the dynamics of global forces on the development of higher education in Asia in particular how neoliberalism has affected reforms on university governance and management in the region It includes a set of country specific studies on how various countries have responded to the dominant neoliberal ideology at the systemic institutional and process levels The focus is on the relationship between the state and the universities which is usually reflected in the degree of autonomy and accountability allowed in a particular higher education system The selected countries are Cambodia China Indonesia India Japan Malaysia Singapore South Korea and Thailand Each case study examines the establishment of corporatised or autonomous universities in the country focusing on i the acts reports and or policies that led to such a move as well as the rationales behind the move ii the changes in the governance and organisational structure of the universities highlighting the kinds of autonomy that the universities have iii the new management strategies techniques and practices that have been introduced to the university including the internal and external quality assurance mechanisms and iv some of the tensions conflicts and acts of resistance that may have emerged
