Developing School Leaders Mark Brundrett, Megan Crawford, 2012-08-06 Many countries face a crisis in recruitment to the most senior positions in schools at a time when arguments rage about the best way to develop our school leaders Focusing on leadership development in ten diverse cultural contexts this book brings together some of the most senior commentators in the field of educational leadership development to provide a global perspective on leadership development programmes and practices The rise of leadership development programmes has presented opportunities for some and challenges for others These challenges are both practical and conceptual and relate to a series of questions that are unpacked in the book including What is the appropriate balance between the academic and the practical in leadership programmes Should provision be located in higher education institutions in other government sponsored organizations or commissioned from the private sector Are models of leadership studies derived from the business and industry relevant to schools How can research into impact inform leadership development policy and strategy Should programmes be integrated into higher degree provision or should new and innovative forms of accreditation be developed This book should be fascinating reading for all those engaged in educational research and teaching and working in educational leadership

Professional Development for Leaders and Managers of Self-Governing Schools David Gamage, 2006-08-05 Current Context Currently self governing schools SGS or school based site based management SBM or local management of schools LMS identifies the individual school as the primary unit of improvement It relies on the redistribution of decision making authority to stimulate and sustain improvements in a school For this purpose varying degrees of formal authority to make decisions in the domains of school's mission goals priorities and school policies relating to financial material and human resources are not simply delegated but transferred by legislation to a representative governing body called the school council or board Accordingly it is the position of the principal or the head teacher previously at the apex of the hierarchical structure of the school which undergoes the most radical reform Under the new concept authority is shifted to the corporate body that is to the council or board while the principal becomes an ex officio member of that body and the chief executive officer CEO of the school Traditionally and legally the principal or the head teacher was vested with the full authority for the total management of the school But in terms of SGS or SBM the principal becomes a partner with the representatives of other relevant stakeholders in a democratic structure When the bureaucratic model of a school gets modified with the school governing body occupying the apex of the school hierarchy it becomes the key power centre with legal authority
