on Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Higher Education Institutions Magd, Hesham, Kunjumammed, Siraj Kariyilaparambu, 2021-09-17 Quality accreditation in higher education institutions HEIs is currently a buzzword The need to maintain high quality education standards is a critical requirement for HEIs to remain competitive in the market and for government and regulatory bodies to ensure the quality standards of programs offered From being an implicit requirement that is internally addressed quality assurance activities become an explicit requirement that is regularly audited and appraised by national and international accreditation agencies HEIs are voluntarily integrating quality management systems QMS institutional and program specific in response to the political and competitive environment in which it exists Through its higher education department or by creating non profitable accreditation bodies many governments have implemented a quality framework for licensing HEIs and invigilates its adherence based on which accreditation statuses are granted for HEIs Global Perspectives on Quality Assurance and Accreditation in Higher Education Institutions provides a comprehensive framework for HEIs to address quality assurance and quality accreditation requirements and serves as a practical tool to develop and deploy well defined quality management systems in higher education The book focuses on the critical aspects of quality assurance the need to develop a concise and agile vision mission values and graduate attributes and to develop a system that effectively aligns the various activities of the HEI to the attainment of the strategic priorities listed in the institutional plans The chapters each cover the various facets of the quality assurance framework and accreditation agencies requirements with practical examples of each This book is useful for HEI administrators quality assurance specialists in HEIs heads of academic departments internal auditors external auditors and other practitioners of quality along with stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in quality assurance and accreditation in higher education Gender Equality in a Global Perspective Anders Ortenblad, Raili Marling, Snjezana Vasiljevic, 2017-01-06 Gender Equality in a Global Perspective looks to discuss whether Gender Equality can be adopted as it has been defined in international documents anywhere or whether it needs to be adapted in a more local context discuss which factors and perspectives need to be taken into account when adapting Gender Equality to specific contexts suggest research approaches for studies on whether a universal Western concept of Gender Equality fits in certain specific contexts and finally suggests challenges to the existing interpretation of Gender Equality e g theory of intersectionality and the development of legal and policy framework This book is situated within the tradition of comparative gender studies While most other such books take up and compare various ways of implementing or not implementing gender equality this book studies and compares whether or not and to what extent a specific definition of Gender Equality GE could be adopted by various nations Thus all chapter contributors will engage with the same definition of GE which will be presented within the book and discuss the possibilities and constraints related to applying such a definition in their particular national context. The readers will learn about the problems of applying a universal concept of Gender Equality and the possible reasons for and modes of adapting Gender Equality to different contexts. Gender Equality in a Global Perspective looks to maintain a critical and reflexive stance towards the issues raised and will seek to present multiple perspectives and open ended answers. As such it hopes to contribute to the international discussion of human rights more broadly and Gender Equality specifically. The intended audience is not limited only to but will include policy makers, scholars and students with an interest in Gender issues, Organizational Theory, Political Science, Human Development, Policy Analysis, Globalization and other management sub disciplines.
