Punjab University Past Papers 2017 – 21

Paper 2017

1. Differentiate between a Functional and Master Budget.

Ans: A functional budget is a budget which relates to any of the functions of an undertaking, e.g., sales, production, research and development, cash etc.

A master budget is a company's central financial planning document. It typically covers a full fiscal year and includes "lower-level" budgets — like a sales budget and a labor budget — cash flow forecasts, financial statements, and a financial plan.

2. Define 'Opportunity Cost.'

Ans: Opportunity cost is the potential benefit that is given up when one alternative is selected over another. In short, it's a value of the road not taken.

3. What is meant by 'Cost Center'?

Ans: A cost center is a function within an organization that does not directly add to profit but still costs money to operate, such as the accounting, HR, or IT departments. The main use of a cost center is to track actual expenses for comparison to the budget.

4. Define 'Standard Costing.'

Ans: Standard costing is the practice of substituting an expected cost for an actual cost in the accounting records.

It is the practice of estimating expenses in the production process since manufacturers cannot predict actual costs in advance. Manufacturers use
