Educating for Values-Driven Leadership Mary C. Gentile, 2013-08-29 Despite four decades of good faith effort to teach ethics in business schools you'll still find today headlines about egregious excess and scandal It becomes reasonable to ask why these efforts have not been working Business faculty in ethics courses spend a lot of time teaching theories of ethical reasoning and analyzing those big thorny dilemmas triggering what one professor called ethics fatigue But what if faculty stopped focusing on ethical analysis and focused on a new curriculum one that builds a conversation across the core curriculum not only in ethics courses and also provides the teaching aids for a new way of thinking about ethics education This is where Giving Voice to Values GVV comes in the GVV curriculum asks the question What if I were going to act on my values What would I say and do How could I be most effective This book will help faculty across the business curriculum with examples strategies and assistance in applying the GVV approach In addition to an introductory chapter which explains the rationale and strategy behind GVV there are twelve individual chapters by faculty from the major business functional areas and from faculty representing different geographic regions The book is a useful guide for faculty from any business discipline on HOW to use the GVV approach in his or her teaching      The Future of Responsible Management Education Christian
