Managing Change On The Korean Peninsula Report Of An Independent Task Force:

Managing Change on the Korean Peninsula Council on Foreign Relations. Independent Task Force on Managing Change on the Korean Peninsula, Morton Abramowitz, James T. Laney, 1998 This report sponsored by the Council on Foreign Relations was done by an Independent Task Force on Managing Change on the Korean Peninsula Noting that the new Republic of Korea government has taken steps to open North Korea to broader contacts with the outside world while asserting that it will brook no military aggression from the North the Task Force recommends a parallel and supportive approach for U S policy

A Sharper Choice on North Korea Mike Mullen, Sam Nunn, Adam Mount, 2016-09-01      U.S. Strategy for Pakistan and Afghanistan Richard Lee Armitage, Samuel R. Berger, Daniel Seth Markey, 2010 The Council on Foreign Relations sponsors Independent Task Forces to assess issues of current and critical importance to U S foreign policy and provide policymakers with concrete judgments and recommendations Diverse in backgrounds and perspectives Task Force members aim to reach a meaningful consensus on policy through private and non partisan deliberations Once launched Task Forces are independent of CFR and solely responsible for the content of their reports Task Force members are asked to join a consensus signifying that they endorse the general policy thrust and judgments reached by the group though not necessarily every finding and recommendation Each Task Force member also has the option of putting forward an additional or a dissenting view Members affiliations are listed for identification purposes only and do not imply institutional endorsement Task Force observers participate in discussions but are not asked to join the consensus Book Jacket      Global Brazil and U.S.-Brazil Relations Council on Foreign Relations. Independent Task Force on Brazil, Samuel W. Bodman, Julia Sweig, James D. Wolfensohn, 2011 July 12 2011 Over the course of a generation Brazil has emerged as both a driver of growth in South America and as an active force in world politics A new Council on Foreign Relations CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report asserts that it is in the interest of the United States to understand Brazil as a complex international actor whose influence on the defining global issues of the day is only likely to increase Brazil currently ranks as the world's fifth largest landmass fifth largest population and expects to soon be ranked the fifth largest economy The report Global Brazil and U S Brazil Relations recommends that U S policymakers recognize Brazil's standing as a global actor treat its emergence as an opportunity for the United States and work with Brazil to develop complementary policies The Task Force is chaired by former secretary of energy Samuel W Bodman and former president of the World Bank James D Wolfensohn and directed by CFR Senior Fellow and Director for Latin America Studies and Director of the Global Brazil Initiative Julia E Sweig Recognizing Brazil's global role the report recommends that the Obama administration now fully endorse the country's bid for a seat as a permanent member of the United Nations Security Council UNSC It argues that a formal endorsement from the United States for Brazil would go far to overcome lingering suspicion within the Brazilian government that the U S commitment to a mature relationship between equals is largely rhetorical Domestically Brazil's inclusive growth has

translated into a significant reduction of inequality an expansion of the middle class and a vibrant economy all framed within a democratic context Consequently Brazil has been able to use its economic bona fides to leverage a stronger position in the international commercial and diplomatic arena The report stresses the importance of regular communication between the presidents of both countries Cooperation between the United States and Brazil holds too much promise for miscommunication or inevitable disagreements to stand in the way of potential gains A mature working relationship means that the United States and Brazil can help each other advance mutual interests even without wholesale policy agreements between the two notes the report The Task Force further recommends that the U S Congress include an elimination of the ethanol tariff in any bill regarding reform to the ethanol and biofuel tax credit regime the United States take the first step to waive visa requirements for Brazilians by immediately reviewing Brazil s criteria for participation in the Visa Waiver Program the U S State Department create an Office for Brazilian Affairs and the National Security Council NSC centralize its efforts under a NSC director for Brazil in order to better coordinate the current decentralized U S policy The bipartisan Task Force includes thirty distinguished experts on Brazil who represent a range of perspectives and backgrounds The report includes a number of additional views by Task Force members including one that notes We believe that a more gradual approach regarding Brazil s inclusion as a full UNSC member would likely have more success in navigating the diplomatic complexities presented by U S support for Brazil Another view asserts If the United States supports as the Obama administration has said it does leadership structures in international institutions that are more reflective of international realities it must support without qualifications Brazil s candidacy for the UNSC

U.S. Immigration Policy Council on Foreign Relations.

Independent Task Force on U.S. Immigration Policy, Jeb Bush, Thomas F. McLarty, Edward H. Alden, 2009 The Council on Foreign Relations sponsors Independent Task Forces to assess issues of current and critical importance to U S foreign policy and provide policy makers with concrete judgments and recommendations Diverse in backgrounds and perspectives Task Force members aim to reach a meaningful consensus on policy through private and nonpartisan deliberations Once launched Task Forces are independent of CFR and solely responsible for the content of their reports Task Force members are asked to join a consensus signifying that they endorse the general policy thrust and judgments reached by the group though not necessarily every finding and recommendation Each Task Force member also has the option of putting forward an additional or dissenting view Members affiliations are listed for identification purposes only and do not imply institutional endorsement Task Force observers participate in discussions but are not asked to join the consensus Book jacket

U.S. Trade and Investment Policy Andrew H. Card, Edward H. Alden, Council on Foreign Relations, Matthew Jon Slaughter, 2011 From American master Ward Just returning to his trademark territory of Forgetfulness and The Weather in Berlin an evocative portrait of diplomacy and desire set against the backdrop of America s first lost war

U.S. Nuclear Weapons Policy William James Perry, Brent Scowcroft, Charles D. Ferguson, 2009 The report notes that in the near term nuclear weapons will remain a fundamental element of U S national security For this reason it emphasizes the importance of maintaining a safe secure and reliable deterrent nuclear force and makes recommendations on this front The report also offers measures to advance important goals such as preventing nuclear terrorism and bolstering the nuclear nonproliferation regime Foreword

Defending an Open, Global, Secure, and Resilient Internet Council on Foreign Relations,2013-06-01 The CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report Defending an Open Global Secure and Resilient Internet finds that as more people and services become interconnected and dependent on the Internet societies are becoming increasingly vulnerable to cyberattacks To support security innovation growth and the free flow of information the Task Force recommends that the United States and its partners work to build a cyber alliance make the free flow of information a part of all future trade agreements and articulate an inclusive and robust vision of Internet governance The Emerging Global Health Crisis Council on Foreign Relations,2014-12-01 Rates of heart disease cancer diabetes and other noncommunicable diseases NCDs in low and middle income countries are increasing faster in younger people and with worse outcomes than in wealthier countries In 2013 alone NCDs killed eight million people before their sixtieth birthdays in developing countries A new CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report and accompanying interactive look at the factors behind this epidemic and the ways the United States can best fight it North America Council on Foreign Relations,2014-10-01 This CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report North America Time for a New Focus asserts that elevating and prioritizing the U S Canada Mexico relationship offers the best opportunity for strengthening the United States and its place in the world

U.S.-Turkey Relations Madeline Albright,Steven Cook,Stephen Hadley,Senior Fellow Steven A Cook,2012-05 Turkey is a rising regional and global power facing as is the United States the challenges of political transitions in the Middle East bloodshed in Syria and Iran s pursuit of nuclear weapons As a result it is incumbent upon the leaders of the United States and Turkey to define a new partnership in order to make a strategic relationship a reality says a new Council on Foreign Relations CFR sponsored Independent Task Force Working With a Rising India Charles R. Kaye,Joseph S. Nye Jr.,Alyssa Ayres,2015-11-01 India now matters to U S interests in virtually every dimension This CFR sponsored Independent Task Force report directed by Alyssa Ayres assesses the current situation in India and the U S India relationship and suggests a new model for partnership with a rising India U.S. Education Reform and National Security Joel I. Klein,Condoleezza Rice,Julia Levy,2014-05-14 The United States failure to educate its students leaves them unprepared to compete and threatens the country s ability to thrive in a global economy and maintain its leadership role This report notes that while the United States invests more in K 12 public education than many other developed countries its students are ill prepared to compete with their global peers According to the results of the 2009 Program for International Student Assessment PISA an international assessment that measures the performance of 15 year olds in reading mathematics and science every three years U S students rank fourteenth in reading twenty fifth in math and seventeenth in science compared to students in other industrialized countries The lack of preparedness poses threats on five national security fronts economic growth and competitiveness physical safety intellectual property U S global awareness and U S unity and cohesion says the report Too many young people are not employable in an increasingly high skilled and global economy and too many are not qualified to join the military because they are physically unfit have criminal records or have an inadequate level of education The report proposes three overarching policy recommendations implement educational expectations and assessments in subjects vital to protecting national security make structural changes to provide students with good choices and launch a national security readiness audit to hold schools and policymakers accountable for results and to raise public awareness

Korean Multinationals in Europe Judith Cherry,2015-12-22 Explores Korean foreign direct investment putting forward a theoretical framework to explain why the Korean conglomerates felt compelled to invest in western central and eastern Europe North Korea Hy-Sang Lee,2000-11-30 As perennial famine and material shortages call into question the tenability of North Korea s military authoritarian government the international community has struggled to reconcile contradictory humanitarian economic and political goals in formulating foreign policy and aid responses to the secretive Pyongyang regime In a historical analysis drawing heavily on primary sources Lee attacks the problem at its root the assumption of policy makers that Pyongyang s belligerence and intractability is an attempt to secure autonomy and national legitimacy in the eyes of the world Rather Lee argues close review of the available evidence demonstrates convincingly that forced reunification with South Korea is the only discernible goal of the Pyongyang government and that the key strategy of the reunification program is a war of attrition against the U S military presence in the South Lee begins with a summary history and moves on to examine the formation of the North Korean communist state in the wake of World War II The implementation of state programs in the 1950s and 1960s follows including the drive towards industrialization the emergence of the Juche ideology and collectivization of agriculture Remaining chapters focus on the recent history of North Korea and offer concluding analysis and remarks Arctic Imperatives Thad W. Allen,Christine Todd Whitman,Esther Brimmer,Anya Schmemmann,2017-03-01

Managing Change on the Korean Peninsula ,1998 The Prospects for North Korea Survival David Reese,2020-11-25 North Korea s economic and security policies imperil both itself and its neighbours The economy has been contracting for almost a decade and the regime appears unwilling or unable to arrest the decline Instead Pyongyang has resorted to begging for international aid This approach alone cannot work fundamental reform is needed without it the regime cannot survive In the meantime the North s problems will be destabilising for the region Pyongyang has secured short term international humanitarian assistance but in the long term the South is its best hope for investment and economic help Despite Pyongyang s defensive approach to the South limited commercial arrangements are in place and may moderate the North s policies and help to ease the unpredictable consequences of Pyongyang s collapse Pyongyang has tried to improve relations with the US in a bid to ease economic sanctions and attract investment However the nuclear deal reached with the US in October 1994 under which the North agreed to give up its ambiguous nuclear programme is in difficulties In this paper David Reese argues that despite these problems the North's neighbours must persevere with engagement policies At the same time South Korea and the US must maintain their security posture on the Peninsula South Korean President Kim Dae Jung's attempts to establish commercial links with the North need time and patience and should not be derailed by relatively minor incidents Both Seoul and Washington must ensure that they coordinate their policies to prevent the North from playing one off against the other Selectively easing sanctions on a case by case basis could allow the North to earn desperately needed hard currency Although it is difficult for Washington and Seoul to maintain political support for engagement both should make further efforts to draw the North into making significant policy changes The US and South Korea should ensure that they involve the interested regional parties in efforts to draw the North into the international community China has a key role to play in developments on the Peninsula Both Seoul and Washington should therefore ensure that they work closely with Beijing While historical sensitivities make it difficult for Japan to play a leading role Tokyo would be central to the North's economic recovery and must not be marginalised Russia also has a contribution to make to the broader security guarantees which could develop from accommodation between North and South Ultimately the course of events on the Peninsula will depend primarily on the North Pyongyang shows little sign of being prepared to engage constructively with the US and South Korea As its economy deteriorates its options will narrow further Until domestic forces in North Korea shift the US and its allies should expect a protracted phase of desultory and sometimes destabilising diplomatic manoeuvres by Pyongyang

Korea Briefing Kongdan Oh, Ralph C. Hassig, 2016-09-16 While mainly focusing on the Kim Dae Jung era the essays in this book examine persistent problems and new opportunities in Korean politics economy and culture In 1997 Kim Ae Jung was elected to head the government of the Seventh Republic after 30 years in opposition

Rogue States and U.S. Foreign Policy Robert Litwak, 2000-02-14 President Clinton and other US officials have warned that rogue states pose a major threat to international peace in the post Cold War era But what exactly is a rogue state Does the concept foster a sound approach to foreign policy or is it in the end no more than a counterproductive political epithet Robert Litwak traces the origins and development of rogue state policy and then assesses its efficacy through detailed case studies of Iraq Iran and North Korea He shows that the policy is politically selective inhibits the ability of US policymakers to adapt to changed conditions and has been rejected by the United States major allies Litwak concludes that by lumping and demonizing a disparate group of countries the rogue state approach obscures understanding and distorts policymaking In place of a generic and constricting strategy he argues for the development of differentiated strategies of containment tailored to the particular circumstances within individual states
