Managing Curricular Innovation:

Managing curricular innovation Numa Markee,1997   Innovation in Language Learning and Teaching P. Darasawang,H. Reinders,2016-01-12 This book investigates the ways in which new developments in areas of language teaching practice such policymaking planning methodology and the use of educational technology spread globally and are adopted rejected or adapted locally   Innovation and change in English language education Ken Hyland,Lillian L C Wong,2013-06-19 Questions about what to teach and how best to teach it are what drive professional practice in the English language classroom Innovation and change in English language education addresses these key questions so that teachers are able to understand and manage change to organise teaching and learning more effectively The book provides an accessible introduction to current theory and research in innovation and change in ELT and shows how these understandings have been applied to the practical concerns of the curriculum and the classroom In specially commissioned chapters written by experts in the field the volume sets out the key issues in innovation and change and shows how these relate to actual practice offers a guide to innovation and change in key areas grounded in research relates theory to practice through the use of illustrative case studies and examples brings together the very best scholarship in TESOL and language education from around the world This book will be of interest to upper undergraduate and graduate students in applied linguistics language education and TESOL as well as pre service and in service teachers teacher educators researchers and administrators keen to create and manage teaching and learning more effectively   Managing Curricular Innovation South Asian Edition Markee, Innovation in English Language Teaching David Hall,Ann Hewings,2013-10-18 This reader provides both theoretical perspectives and practical tools for analysing and understanding how ELT classroom curricula can be analysed developed and evaluated The commissioned and classic texts place curriculum change in a philosophical framework and also explore the political and institutional considerations A series of case studies are provided to highlight both the role of the teacher in curriculum innovation and various processes of planning and implementation The final section deals with evaluating curriculum and syllabus change   Managing Educational Development Projects Carole Baume,Paul Martin,Mantz Yorke,2003-12-16 Educational development is a major issue for higher education institutions HEIs It constitutes a major part of the research work of many academics This practical volume written by experienced practitioners in the field is a guide to successfully managing an educational development project   Managing Schools Bryan T. Peck,1998 Twenty six case studies provide an overview of some of the problems and issues facing school directors in the European Union member countries and in associated countries The studies highlight school management present a comparative analysis of the main developments and provides a range of examples illustrating how school directors have interpreted introduced and developed the European Dimension in their schools Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR   Information Technology and Innovation in Language Education Chris Davison,2005-01-01 This book presents a critical analysis and investigation of current developments and debates in the use of information technology IT in English language teaching ELT internationally The first section of the book provides an overview of the key issues in IT and innovation in English language education such as the complex nature of IT and its use in ELT both in the present and future and the often problematic nature of innovation in relation to IT and ELT It focuses primarily on the level of programs and curricula looking at the way organizations and educational systems in different countries respond to the so called IT imperative The second section adopts a more overtly social constructivist perspective to explore examples of innovative practice in IT use in ELT around the world It tackles issues arising from classroom implementation and pedagogy looking at the way learners and teachers can and do use IT in their everyday practice The final section investigates the problems of building a community of professional practice in IT in English language education It focuses on the level of professional development and teacher education and in doing so demonstrates how the implementation of IT in schools and classrooms can be enhanced through taking into account key aspects of teachers existing contexts and professional practices Throughout the book the contributors adopt a constructive but critical perspective on the use of IT in English language education often challenging its role in developing learner autonomy its effectiveness in developing language learning and its capacity to enhance pedagogic practice in the language teaching classroom at the same time suggesting effective models and guidelines for good practice   English in Singapore Lisa Lim,Anne Pakir,Lionel Wee,2010-06-01 English in Singapore provides an up to date detailed and comprehensive investigation into the various issues surrounding the sociolinguistics of English in Singapore Rather than attempting to cover the usual topics in an overview of a variety of English in a particular country the essays in this volume are important for identifying some of the most significant issues pertaining to the state and status of English in Singapore in modern times and for doing so in a treatment that involves a critical evaluation of work in the field and new and thought provoking angles for reviewing such issues in the context of Singapore in the twenty first century The contributions address the historical trajectory of English past present and possible future its position in relation to language policy and multiculturalism the relationship between the standard and colloquial varieties and how English can and should be taught This book is thus essential reading for scholars and students concerned with how the dynamics of the English language are played out and managed in a modern society such as Singapore It will also interest readers who have a more general interest in Asian studies the sociology of language and World Englishes   Sport Management in the Ibero-American World Gabriel Cepeda Carrión,Jerónimo García-Fernández,James J. Zhang,2023-07-10 This book explores innovation in technology products and services in sport management in the Ibero American region one of the most rapidly developing regions in world sport This timely volume captures a sense of the potential impact and opportunities presented in the region for international sport businesses and sporting organisations The book presents cutting edge research into topics as diverse as digitization in the Chilean sport industry responses to COVID 19 by sports clubs in the region consumer behavior in the Portuguese fitness industry multiplatform content distribution in Brazilian basketball and the strategy behind the growth and development of the Valencia marathon in Spain It is full of insight data and examples of best practice in innovation This is fascinating reading for any student researcher or practitioner working in sport management sport business sport governance international business and management or Ibero American studies Case Studies in Language Curriculum Design John Macalister,I.S.P. Nation,2013-05-13 Case studies are a powerful pedagogical tool for illuminating constructs and models in real life contexts Covering a wide range of teaching learning contexts and offering in depth analyses of ESL ELT language curriculum design issues this casebook is distinctive and unique in that each case draws on and is clearly linked to a single model presented in Nation and Macalister s Language Curriculum Design www routledge com 9780415806060 giving the book a high degree of coherence A short commentary by the editors after each case highlights features of note and or issues arising from it This is a versatile text designed to work as a companion to Language Curriculum Design adding meaning and depth to the model presented there by relating it to a range of applications as a stand alone text or as a resource for language teacher trainees teacher educators practicing teachers program administrators and materials writers in the field Applied Language Learning ,2018 International Perspectives on Teachers Living with Curriculum Change Martin Wedell,Laura Grassick,2017-11-10 This book gives a voice to English language teachers faced with the challenges posed by English language curriculum change As a core component of national state system curricula in virtually every country in the world there has nevertheless been little research exploring how the millions of English teachers worldwide navigate the challenges posed by such curriculum changes This volume includes eleven stories from teachers based across every continent providing a global glimpse of how national English curriculum change projects have been experienced by classroom teachers who are commonly if erroneously viewed as mostly responsible for its implementation success or failure The final chapter synthesises these experiences and suggests wider implications for the development of curriculum change planning processes and how they might better support teachers attempts to achieve curriculum goals Edited and authored by leading experts in the field this ground breaking collection will be of interest to students and scholars of English language teaching teacher education curriculum change and education policy Developing Capacity for Innovation in Complex Systems Christer Vindeløv-Lidzélius,2020-09-27 Based on a theoretical analysis and supported by both explorative qualitative and quantitative research this book examines the many reasons why an initiative becomes an innovation and why some organizations are better at innovation than others Developing Capacity for Innovation in Complex Systems offers insights into the history of the idea of innovation as well as knowledge around different discourses on innovation The purpose of this book is to help organisations further their aspirations and work with innovation It is based on three premises 1 that capacity can be developed 2 that it is worthwhile trying to do so and 3 there are however no guarantees for success Providing a comprehensive view of innovation and discussing the theoretical challenges the book contributes towards a holistic theory for capacity building for innovation The book conveys frameworks methodologies and tools that are used in terms of innovation and it explains positive strategies for innovation that are being developed Complexity theory is presented and attributed to the construct of innovation to further the understanding of the intricacies and fallacies of innovation work This book will be of direct interest to scholars and subject matter experts in the field of innovation management Business leaders and reflective practitioners will find the content relevant and accessible The Politics of Language Education Charles Alderson,2009-02-27 Politics can be a very important influence on educational developments and their deployment However this volume is different from other volumes since it looks not at the macropolitics and the ideological agendas of nations and multinational or global organisations but rather focuses on micropolitics the agendas and motivations of individuals within organisations and on their actions Micropolitics can be seen as ways of manoeuvring within institutions which are themselves not political but commercial financial and educational Indeed politics with a small p includes not only institutional politics but also personal politics which can influence language education both in daily matters and in projects for innovation and change The aim of this edited book is to begin a debate about the nature and role of micropolitics to contribute to a better understanding of language education change and resistance to change and the processes of language education

Learning-Oriented Language Assessment Atta Gebril,2021-05-11 This collection brings together research on learning oriented language assessment from scholars working across geographic and educational contexts highlighting the opportunities of assessment practices which seek to better align assessment and learning tasks and support effective learning The volume begins by introducing learning oriented assessment LOA and the context around its growing popularity especially in accountability oriented settings which favor summative large scale tests The first part of the book charts the development of LOA s theoretical and conceptual underpinnings outlining the ways in which they have been informed by theories of learning and key elements The second part demonstrates LOA in practice drawing on examples from different countries and instructional settings to explore such topics as the role of technology in LOA and developing feedback materials based around LOA principles and developed for core literacy skills Offering a holistic view of learning oriented assessment and the real world affordances and challenges of its implementation this book is key reading for graduate students researchers and practitioners in language testing and assessment TESOL and language education Education in Tanzania in the Era of Globalisation L.P. Lugalla,Marriote Ngwaru,2019-03-29 Education in Tanzania in the Era of Globalisation Challenges and Opportunities is a product of papers presented at a National Education Conference held in Dodoma Tanzania in November 2016 and organised by the Aga Khan University Institute for Educational Development East Africa AKU IED EA At present Tanzanias development direction is guided by Vision 2025 which aims to achieve a high quality livelihood for its people be attainment of Vision 2025 will depend largely on rapid socio economic development based on several social and economic pillars including most importantly education Clearly for Tanzania the scope and quality of education remains the single most important prerequisite to the attainment of Vision 2025 and the 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs The individual chapters in this publication and their collective thrust discuss the challenges in the education system in good faith and in the spirit of cooperation and collaboration guided by the belief that it is not the responsibility of the Government alone to see how these can be addressed AKU IED EA has identd this as the responsibility of all well meaning corporate bodies and citizens and initiated thst conference of its type as its contribution to thore conference as well as the publication has to be seen as a model of good practice for universities in terms of sharing knowledge experience and practice with other stakeholders who are not in the academy and more so with politicians as well as government policy planners The various authors of Education in Tanzania in the Era of Globalisation Challenges and Opportunities discuss issues within the context of the Tanzanian political economy against thects of globalization and seek to initiate a new kind of debate that is long overdue a debate aimed at charting out appropriate strategies whose objective is to improve the quality of education in Tanzania so that it becomes a useful vehicle in enhancing processes of social change transformation and development   Program Evaluation in Language Education R. Kiely,P. Rea-Dickins,2005-07-26 The authors describe evaluation as a way of understanding and developing language programs the thematic and background section sets out the decision making quality management and learning functions of evaluation Case studies illustrate the diversity of evaluation contexts functions and approaches documenting the ways in which evaluation processes and outcomes inform and facilitate program development and contribute to explaining how language and teacher education programs constitute opportunities for learning The ways in which evaluation practice can be researched and developed to maximize policy institutional and program effectiveness is included and a comprehensive set of resources for those commissioning undertaking or researching language program evaluations concludes the text   Languaging Experiences Hadrian Lankiewicz,Emilia Wąsikiewicz-Firlej,2014-04-11 This book is dedicated to the notion of languaging which has recently gained recognition across many disciplines From philosophy to linguistics the foundations of the concept rest on the assumption that language is a way of knowing making personal sense of the world becoming conscious of oneself and a means of creating one s identity The very notion of languaging is still a fresh and unexplored concept in applied linguistics and deserves careful scrutiny For this reason the volume is   English Language Teaching in Pakistan Naziha Ali Raza,Christine Coombe,2022-02-05 This book presents empirical research on teaching learning and assessment and teacher development practices in Pakistan Despite extensive academic research conducted in Pakistan over the last decade there is a dearth of internationally published literature on English language teaching in the country This book covers current research priorities and initiatives concerning English language teaching learning and assessment empirical developments and major professional development initiatives both in Pakistan and involving the work of Pakistani scholars based in abroad It highlights the impacts that development efforts are having in the ELT world in Pakistan The respective chapters cover a diverse range of topics including continuous professional development CPD identity construction English language policy curriculum development and innovative ELT approaches and methodologies used in Pakistan This volume provides valuable insights for TESOL and applied linguistics scholars and practitioners working in the field of ELT both in Pakistan and elsewhere in the globalized world
