Years Donald Miller, 2009-09-28 After the publication of his wildly successful memoir Blue Like Jazz Donald Miller s life began to stall During what should have been the height of his success he found himself avoiding responsibility and even questioning the meaning of life But when two producers proposed turning his memoir into a movie Miller found himself launched into a new story filled with risk possibility beauty and meaning A Million Miles in a Thousand Years chronicles Miller s rare opportunity to edit his life into a great story and to reinvent himself so nobody shrugs their shoulders when the credits roll When his producers begin fictionalizing Don s life for the film changing a meandering memoir into a structured narrative the real life Don starts a journey to make his actual life into a better story In this book we have a front row seat to Miller s journey from sleeping all day to riding his bike across America from living in romantic daydreams to facing love head on from wasting his money to founding a life changing nonprofit Guided by a host of outlandish but very real characters

A Million Miles Ago, the Journey Continues Mae Black Buckel, 2014-08-04 Suicide is at the top of the list for death among teenagers Wedding vows are no longer sacred while divorce is rampant Thousands become addicted to prescription drugs while counselors search for new ways to help their patients cope with the cares of life You may be one of these and maybe you feel you cannot go on your heart breaks from the loss of a child all you have left are memories and a question Why Maybe you feel ashamed and degraded because of rape or sexual abuse you carry the burden of shame and confusion until it weighs you down Maybe you have been through a divorce you feel like a failure or a reject you turned to drugs or alcohol or some other substance just to get through the disappointments life has dealt you Yet you find that nothing works and you want to swallow the whole bottle of pills the doctor gave you so you won't have to wake up to another sad day Maybe you are in a jail or prison locked away from society for making bad choices You have broken the rules and it is payday but the cost is too high and you do not know how you will ever pay it You may be a battered wife with little children at your feet and you cannot find a way out You may be a drug addict with a need you cannot fill or an alcoholic with a thirst you cannot quench You were told you will always be an addict and now you feel helpless I too have been in most of these places in my life I share my story in hopes that I may help someone else find peace in the midst of his or her own personal storm rural Northern Ontario We never had a car growing up I swore when I grew up I would drive somewhere every day My happiest place is behind the wheel Home nursing gave me that perk and every patient I visited turned out another story names never used and situations slightly changed to assure privacy for participants My mother lived a thousand miles across the province from us so in order to ensure my little ones knew their grandmother well we often dropped everything and headed for Grandma s Each of those road trips was a story in itself Something of note would happen every time we set out on such a journey For instance my daughter and I were at one time both nursing new babies and THAT is yet another book Between the uprooted schedule we both maintained for our babies we did not take into consideration that our nerves would get the best of us I recall my daughter saying she was headed for the river bank halfway to our destination and don t bother coming to get her I could keep both babes since it was obvious she knew nothing about mothering I swear I don t recall questioning her parenting but to this day she claims I did Loudly Could have been something to do with the fact my last baby was born when I was 45 not much left in the patience locker I am an obsessive fisherman My fishing rod is always in the trunk I would travel out of my way for one little cast to see if fish are biting at a nearby lakeshore or I would jump into my boat and be gone for hours sometimes days after the big catch Those lake trips added many miles to my log of distance and stories I also play music in a bluegrass band with my daughter We log many many miles gong to festivals practices and local and regional musical events I have always had a rather large vehicle to contain in the early years kids and all their quilts and cuddle toys and sippy cups and anything else they snuck on board Later years I had to carry medical supplies briefcases office supplies and the like for work then instruments and sound equipment for the festival circuit and a front seat filled with coffee maker and a sizeable cooler for the many meals I had to consume while driving At all times I carried a clipboard and attached pen to record the noteworthy things that happened on my various trips Those clipboards filled quickly In later years it was a laptop and or tablet and cell phone gracing my passenger seat Since my nursing career began in the early seventies and motherhood as well and musician matters all my life plus the fishing and the snowmachine miles you can imagine I had ample grist for this Million Miles mill The book is filled with my life on the road a memoir National Leaflet ,1903
