

Mindfulness

Anchored in the Now

In this moment, I take a stand,
Feeling the earth beneath, the touch of land.
Breathing in deep, sensing the flow,
Anchored in the now, letting go.

Past is a shadow, future's still a dream,
Present is the river, with a gentle gleam.
Embracing this second, with all it brings,
Mindfulness teaches, to feel life's strings.

No wandering thoughts, no distant gaze,
Just a heart full of gratitude, in this mindful daze.
With every breath, every subtle sound,
In mindfulness, life's beauty is found.

Minds I Poems

A. Ziobroski

Minds I Poems:

A Poetry of Two Minds Sherod Santos, 2000 In his long awaited first book of prose poet and essayist Sherod Santos takes a compelling look into some of poetry's deepest secrets an investigation that leads him to the surprising conclusion that poems have minds of their own minds often inaccessible even to the one who composed them In these essays Santos explores not only what he thinks about poetry but also what and how poetry thinks about itself His writings range across the history of Western poetry from formative classical myths to modern experimental forms and touch on subjects as diverse as the rhetorical history of cannibalism the political and cultural uses of translation and the current state of American poetry Along the way he calls on past poets like Ovid Baudelaire and Phyllis Wheatley on twentieth century poets like Wallace Stevens H D and Rainer Maria Rilke and on writers and thinkers like Montaigne Walter Benjamin Simone Weil and Paul de Man These essays explore facets of poetry known best to one who has practiced the art for years From the methods of poetic attention to the processes by which perception is transformed into language and from the illusive relationship between poetry and meaning to the integral relationship between poetry and memory this collection delves into what it means to be a poet and how being a poet is intimately tied to one's social and cultural moment With Santos's trademark flair for seeking out the overlooked and unforeseeable A Poetry of Two Minds is an extraordinary collection that testifies to its author's far reaching intellectual curiosity Readers who have delighted in his insights over the years can now have the satisfaction of having them caught between the covers of this provocative book

Best Minds Stevan M. Weiner, 2023-03-28 WINNER 2024 BEAT STUDIES ASSOCIATION AWARDS A revelatory look at how poet Allen Ginsberg transformed experiences of mental illness and madness into some of the most powerful and widely read poems of the twentieth century Allen Ginsberg's 1956 poem Howl opens with one of the most resonant phrases in modern poetry I saw the best minds of my generation destroyed by madness Thirty years later Ginsberg entrusted a Columbia University medical student with materials not shared with anyone else including psychiatric records that documented how he and his mother Naomi Ginsberg struggled with mental illness In Best Minds psychiatrist researcher and scholar Stevan M Weiner M D who was that medical student examines how Allen Ginsberg took his visions and psychiatric hospitalization his mother's devastating illness confinement and lobotomy and the social upheavals of the postwar world and imaginatively transformed them Though madness is often linked with hardship and suffering Ginsberg's showed how it could also lead to profound and redemptive aesthetic spiritual and social changes Through his revolutionary poetry and social advocacy Ginsberg dedicated himself to leading others toward new ways of being human and easing pain Throughout his celebrated career Ginsberg made us feel as though we knew everything there was to know about him However much has been left out about his experiences growing up with a mentally ill mother his visions and his psychiatric hospitalization In Best Minds with a forty year career studying and addressing trauma Weiner provides a groundbreaking exploration of the poet and his creative process especially in relation to madness Best Minds examines the complex relationships between mental illness psychiatry trauma poetry and prophecy using the access Ginsberg generously shared to offer new lively and indispensable insights into an American icon. Weine also provides new understandings of the paternalism treatment failures ethical lapses and limitations of American psychiatry in the 1940s and 1950s. In light of these new discoveries the challenges Ginsberg faced appear starker and his achievements both as a poet and an advocate even more remarkable.

Hearts and Minds Michael Bibby, 1996 The early 1960s to the mid 1970s was one of the most turbulent periods in American history. The U S military was engaged in its longest costliest overseas conflict while the home front was torn apart by riots protests and social activism. In the midst of these upheavals an underground and countercultural press emerged giving activists an extraordinary forum for a range of imaginative expressions. Poetry held a prominent place in this alternative media. The poem was widely viewed by activists as an inherently anti establishment form of free expression and poets were often in the vanguards of political activism. Hearts and Minds is the first book length study of the poems of the Black Liberation Women's Liberation and GI Resistance movements during the Vietnam era. Drawing on recent cultural and literary theories Bibby investigates the significance of images tropes and symbols of human bodies in activist poetry. Many key political slogans of the period black is beautiful off our backs foreground the body. Bibby demonstrates that figurations of bodies marked important sites of social and political struggle. Although poetry played such an important role in Vietnam era activism literary criticism has largely ignored most of this literature. Bibby recuperates the cultural historical importance of Vietnam era activist poetry highlighting both its relevant contexts and revealing how it engaged political and social struggles that continue to motivate contemporary history. Arguing for the need to read cultural history through these underground texts Hearts and Minds offers new grounds for understanding the recent history of American poetry and the role poetry has played as a medium of imaginative political expression.

Words of Minds I Do Not Know A. Ziobroski, 2015-11-12 In this collection of poems the author pulls from her experiences with mental illness to create a picture of her life. From over 80 poems full of love to ones of confusion each piece contains a short description to allow you insight into the true meaning of each poem.

Behaviorism, Consciousness, and the Literary Mind Joshua Gang, 2021-11-16 What might behaviorism that debunked school of psychology tell us about literature If inanimate objects such as novels or poems have no mental properties of their own then why do we talk about them as if they do Why do we perceive the minds of characters narrators and speakers as if they were comparable to our own In Behaviorism Consciousness and the Literary Mind Joshua Gang offers a radical new approach to these questions which are among the most challenging philosophical problems faced by literary study today Recent cognitive criticism has tried to answer these questions by looking for similarities and analogies between literary form and the processes of the brain In contrast Gang turns to one of the twentieth century s most infamous psychological doctrines behaviorism Beginning in 1913 a range of psychologists and philosophers including John B Watson B F Skinner and Gilbert Ryle argued that many of the things we talk about as mental phenomena aren t at all interior but rather misunderstood behaviors and physiological processes Today behaviorism has relatively little scientific value but Gang argues for its enormous critical value for thinking about why language is so good at creating illusions of mental life Turning to behaviorism s own literary history Gang offers the first sustained examination of the outmoded science s place in twentieth century literature and criticism Through innovative readings of figures such as I A Richards the American New Critics Samuel Beckett Harold Pinter and J M Coetzee Behaviorism Consciousness and the Literary Mind reveals important convergences between modernist writers experimental psychology and analytic philosophy of mind while also giving readers a new framework for thinking about some of literature s most fundamental and exciting prospect of teaching writing to a classroom full of students some who speak English and some who don't can be overwhelming. When students learning English are at different levels the task is even more challenging. Writing Sense Integrated Reading and Writing Lessons for English Language Learners outlines the classroom conditions necessary for successful writing instruction with English language learners whether in writing workshop and or small group instruction. It includes 68 classroom tested lessons for grades K-8 that show kids at all levels of language acquisition how to make connections, ask questions, visualize, make mental images, infer, determine importance, synthesize, monitor meaning and comprehension and use fix-up strategies. The five main sections are geared to the stages of language proficiency and lessons are divided into younger and older students spanning kindergarten through to grade eight. There are extensive lists of suggested books for mentor texts as well as lists of mentor authors to facilitate teachers planning and instruction. Mind flowers: Poetry and problems M. A.
