religion specifically of established Churches The impact of such reconciliation commissions on Indigenous Native Americans is also examined as is the role of women and how both commissions and Churches or religions were challenged by their experiences The contributors offer differing perspectives on one or more national truth and reconciliation processes and thus offer a collection that serves as valuable source for the disciplines of Religious Studies Ethics Theology Political Science Social Sciences and Women s Studies Self-Portrait with Dogwood Christopher Merrill,2017-01-16 In the course of researching dogwood trees beloved poet and essayist Christopher Merrill realized that a number of formative moments in his life had some connection to the tree named according to one writer because its fruit was not fit for a dog As he approached his sixtieth birthday Merrill began to compose a self portrait alongside this tree whose lifespan is comparable to a human s and that from an early age he s regarded as a talisman Dogwoods have never been far from Merrill s view at significant moments throughout his life helping to shape his understanding of place in the great chain of being entwined in his experience is the conviction that our relationship to the natural world is central to our walk in the sun The feeling of a connection to nature has become more acute as his life has taken him to distant corners of the earth often to war zones where he has witnessed not only humankind s propensity for violence and evil but also the enduring power of connections that can be forged across languages borders and politics Dogwoods teach us persistence humility and wonder Self Portrait with Dogwood is no ordinary memoir but rather the work of a traveler who has crisscrossed the country and the globe in search of ways to make sense of his time here Merrill provides new ways of thinking about personal history the environment politics faith and the power of the written word In his descriptions of places far and near many outside of the average American s purview a besieged city in Bosnia a hidden path in a Taiwanese park Tolstoy s country house in Russia a castle in Slovakia a blossoming dogwood at daybreak in Seattle the reader s understanding of the world will flourish as well

Understanding W.S. Merwin H. L. Hix,1997 Elucidates the unique voice of a Pulitzer Prize winning poet Desire and Infinity in W. S. Merwin's Poetry Feng Dong,2021-12-15 In the first monograph on W S Merwin to appear since his death in 2019 Feng Dong focuses on the dialectical movement of desire and infinity that ensouls the poet s entire oeuvre His analysis foregrounds what Merwin calls the other side of despair the opposite of humans articulated personal and social agonies Feng finds these presences in Merwin s evocations of what lingers on the edge of constantly updated socio symbolic frameworks surreal encounters spiritual ecstasies and abyssal freedoms By examining Merwin s lifelong engagement with psychic fantasies anonymous holiness entities both natural and supernatural and ghostly ancestors Feng uncovers a precarious relation with the unarticulated unrealized side of existence Drawing on theories from Lacan i ek Levinas and Heidegger Desire and Infinity in W S Merwin s Poetry reads a metaphysical possibility into the poet s work at the intersection between contemporary poetics philosophy and psychoanalysis Acts of Mind Richard Jackson,1984-05-30 There have been any number of books of interviews with contemporary writers but none precisely like this one The author editor has somehow managed to get these very different poets to follow his lead and in many cases for the first time anywhere to reveal much about their intellectual habits assumptions and preconceptions In almost every case he has been able to get these poets to talk more openly and freely than anyone else has ever done George Garrett Postmodernist Fiction Brian McHale,2003-09-02 In this trenchant and lively study Brian McHale undertakes to construct a version of postmodernist fiction which encompasses forms as wide ranging as North American metafiction Latin American magic realism the French New New Novel concrete prose and science fiction Considering a variety of theoretical approaches including those of Ingarden Eco Dolezel Pavel and Hrushovski McHale shows that the common denominator is postmodernist fiction s ability to thrust its own ontological status into the foreground and to raise questions about the world or worlds in which we live Exploiting various theoretical approaches to literary ontology those of Ingarden Eco Dolezel Pavel Hrushovski and others and ranging widely over contemporary world literature McHale assembles a comprehensive repertoire of postmodernist fiction s strategies of world making and unmaking Towards a 'Natural' Narratology Monika Fludernik,2002-11 In this ground breaking work of synthesis Monika Fludernik combines insights from literary theory and linguistics to provide a challenging new theory of narrative This book is both an historical survey and theoretical study with the author drawing on an enormous range of examples from the earliest oral study to contemporary experimental fiction She uses these examples to prove that recent literature far from heralding the final collapse of narrative represents the epitome of a centuries long developmental process The Body's Recollection of Being David Michael Levin,2002-01-04 This is a unique study containing the work of Merleau Ponty and Heidegger and using the techniques of phenomenology against the prevailing nihilism of our culture It expands our understanding of the human potential for spiritual self realization by interpreting it as the developing of a bodily felt awareness informing our gestures and movements The author argues that a psychological focus on our experience of well being and pathology as embodied beings contributes significantly to a historically relevant critique of ideology It also provides an essential touchstone in experience for a fruitful individual and collective response to the danger of nihilism Dr Levin draws on Merleau Ponty s phenomenology to clarify Heidegger s analytic of human beings through an interpretation that focuses on our experience of being embodied He reconstructs in modern terms the wisdom implicit in western and semitic forms of religion and philosophy considering the work of Freud Jung Foucault and Nietzsche as well as that of American educational philosophers including Dewey In particular he draws on the psychology of Freud and Jung to clarify our historical experience of gesture and movement and to bring to light its potential in the fulfilment of Selfhood Throughout the book the pathologies of the ego and its journey into Selfhood are considered in relation to the conditions of technology and the powers of nihilism Stratagem of the Corpse Gary J Shipley,2020-01-30 This book is unique in its dedicated tackling of the subject of death in the work of Jean Baudrillard Through new readings of his work the book makes so patently clear the importance of Baudrillard s tendency to poeticize his core indebtedness to Georges Bataille Alfred Jarry and others and his reliance on paradox Ultimately Stratagem of the Corpse is less a making sense of death and more a transcript of what occurred when death made sense of us a reverse thanatology in which death delineates the variant forms of our encroachment not so much death as seen by Baudrillard but Baudrillard as seen by death From Origin to Ecology Jane Frazier,1999 Frazier examines Merwin s poetry with regard to ecocriticism anthropology Merwin s fellow poets Merwin criticism and his own essays and interviews Of central importance is Merwin s indebtedness to Henry David Thoreau his sense that Thoreau guided American writing in a new direction whereby nature could be seen as something of value for itself
