published in 1990 The Philosopher's Habitat introduces the subject by investigating a variety of the problems which are currently engaging philosophers and which can be made intelligible to an absolute beginner Rather than introducing philosophy by examining in the traditional way the writings of great philosophers the author has inverted this procedure The idea is that the reader will become absorbed in these dramas will thereby come to appreciate the ways in which the stage was set by the great writers of the past and will feel the urge to participate Questions at the end of each chapter encourage the reader to push beyond the text This book is a must read for students of philosophy White Terror Russell

Meeuf, 2022-04-05 What kinds of terror lurk beneath the surface of White respectability Many of the top grossing US horror films between 2008 and 2016 relied heavily on themes of White patriarchal fear and fragility outsiders disrupting the sanctity of the almost always White family evil forces or transgressive ideas transforming loved ones and children dying when White women eschew traditional maternal roles Horror film has a long history of radical political commentary and Russell Meeuf reveals how racial resentments represented specifically in horror films produced during the Obama era gave rise to the Trump presidency and the Make America Great Again movement Featuring films such as The Conjuring and Don't Breathe White Terror explores how motifs of home invasion exorcism possession and hauntings mirror cultural debates around White masculinity class religion socioeconomics and more In the vein of Jordan Peele White Terror exposes how White mainstream fear affects the horror film industry which in turn cashes in on that fear and draws voters to candidates like Trump The Mentor, 1921 The Mentor-world Traveler, 1921 Mentor-World Traveler, 1921 The Great Dismal Swamp in Myth and Legend, The Borley Rectory Companion Paul Adams, Peter Underwood, Eddie Brazil, 2016-09-23 Borley Rectory in Essex built in 1862 should have been an ordinary Victorian clergyman's house. However, just a year after its construction, unexplained footsteps were heard within the house and from 1900 until it burned down in 1939, numerous paranormal phenomena including phantom coaches and shattering windows were observed. In 1929, the house was investigated by the Daily Mail and paranormal researcher Harry Price, and it was he who called it the most haunted house in England. Price also took out a lease of the rectory from 1937 to 1938, recruiting forty-eight official observers to monitor occurrences. After his death in 1948, the water was muddied by claims that Price's findings were not genuine paranormal activity, and ever since there has been a debate over what really went on at Borley Rectory. Paul Adams, Eddie Brazil, and Peter Underwood here present a comprehensive guide to the history of the house and the ghostly or not goings on there.
