On Murder True Crime Writing In Australia:

On Murder Kerry Greenwood, 2000 No Marketing Blurb A Greater Guilt Noeline Kyle, 2009 A brutal murder of a child in a small English village in 1860 which remained an unsolved crime until the sensational confession of Constance Emilie Kent in 1865 If you are a true crime enthusiast if you wonder about what happens to a woman a human being after they confess are tried and then imprisoned for twenty years you will enjoy Noeline Kyle's tracing of Constance Kent's extraordinary life before during and after this awful crime Constance Kent trained as a nurse at the Alfred Hospital in Melbourne worked at the Coast Hospital at Little Bay was matron of the notorious Parramatta Industrial School for girls and matron of a nurses home in Maitland she was a convicted murderess but lived to the grand old age of 100 under an assumed name and not once did anyone in the Antipodes suspect her true identity Gumshoes Mitzi M. Brunsdale, 2006-04-30 The enormous explosion of crime fiction over the last decade means that more people are looking for a good mystery than ever before This dictionary of fictional detectives helps readers learn about the series in which their favorite detectives are featured Included are alphabetically arranged entries on roughly 150 fictional detectives which provide information about the works in which the detective appears the locales in which the detective operates the detective's investigative methods and other important information Helpful bibliographical citations direct the reader to other interesting works The volume closes with a selected general bibliography various appendices and an extensive index The enormous explosion of crime fiction over the last decade means that more people are looking for a good mystery than ever before Many of the most popular mystery books appear in series and these series feature carefully developed detectives The Search for Anne Perry Joanne Drayton, 2016-04-05 Acclaimed literary biographer Joanne Drayton was given unparalleled access to Anne Perry her friends relatives colleagues and archives to complete this book She intersperses the story of her life with an examination of her writing drawing parallels between Perry's own experiences and her characters and storylines The Search for Anne Perry is a gripping account of a life and provides understanding of the girl Anne was the adult she became her compulsion to write and her view of the world Australian Crime Fiction Stephen Knight, 2018-06-28 Australian crime fiction has grown from the country's origins as an 18th century English prison colony Early stories focused on escaped convicts becoming heroic bush rangers or how the system mistreated those who were wrongfully convicted Later came thrillers about wealthy free settlers and lawless gold seekers and urban crime fiction including Fergus Hume's 1887 international best seller The Mystery of a Hansom Cab set in Melbourne The 1980s saw a surge of private eye thrillers popular in a society skeptical of police Twenty first century authors have focused on policemen and increasingly policewomen and finally indigenous crime narratives The author explores in detail this rich but little known national subgenre The Essential Mystery Lists Roger M Sobin, 2011-09-30 For the first time in one place Roger M Sobin has compiled a list of nominees and award winners of virtually every mystery award ever presented He has also included many of the best of lists by more than fifty of the most important contributors to the genre Mr Sobin spent more than two decades gathering the data and lists in this volume much of that time he used to recheck the accuracy of the material he had collected Several of the best of lists appear here for the first time in book form Several others have been unavailable for a number of years Of special note are Anthony Boucher s Best Picks for the Year Boucher one of the major mystery reviewers of all time reviewed for The San Francisco Chronicle Ellery Queen Mystery Magazine and The New York Times From these resources Mr Sobin created Boucher s Best and Important Lists to Consider lists that provide insight into important writing in the field from 1942 through Boucher s death in 1968 This is a great resource for all mystery readers and collectors Winner of the 2008 Macavity Awards for Best Mystery Nonfiction

Crime Fiction and National Identities in the Global Age Julie H. Kim, 2020-05-25 To read a crime novel today largely simulates the exercise of reading newspapers or watching the news The speed and frequency with which today s bestselling works of crime fiction are produced allow them to mirror and dissect nearly contemporaneous socio political events and conflicts This collection examines this phenomenon and offers original critical essays on how national identity appears in international crime fiction in the age of populism and globalization These essays address topics such as the array of competing nationalisms in Europe Indian secularism versus Hindu communalism the populist rhetoric tinged with misogyny or homophobia in the United States racial religious or ethnic others who are sidelined in political appeals to dominant native voices and the increasing economic chasm between a rich and poor More broadly these essays inquire into themes such as how national identity and various conceptions of masculinity are woven together how dominant native cultures interact with migrant and colonized cultures to explore insider outsider paradigms and identity politics and how generic and cultural boundaries are repeatedly crossed in postcolonial detective fiction

Suburban True Crime Emily Webb, 2022-06-15 Chilling cases of murder and crime that have happened in the quiet streets of Australia s suburbs Featuring contemporary cases as well as some shocking historical murders you ve probably never heard of Suburban True Crime proves you shouldn t say it could never happen here This collection of cases that are hard to believe except they really happened and all in the streets and homes of the Australia many of us know and live The suburbs These cases range from recent murders to some historical stories that will shock and surprise Some of the cases you ll know and there s crimes you ve never heard of These cases will shock and surprise you including the still unsolved mistaken identity murder of Melbourne mother Jane Thurgood Dove and the horrifying story of a man who killed in Australia and then was released from prison only to kill again in the United States There s also some historical crimes that shocked the community at the time but have now faded into obscurity including cases of child murder in the 1970s Think nothing ever happens where you live Think again Emily Webb is a journalist true crime author and co host of the popular Australian True Crime podcast
