Memory and Memorials, 1789-1914 Matthew Campbell, Jaqueline M. Labbe, Sally Shuttleworth, 2002-11-01 Ranging historically from the French Revolution to the beginnings of Modernism this book examines the significance of memory in an era of furious social change Through an examination of literature history and science the authors explore the theme of memory as a tool of social progression This book offers a fresh theoretical understanding of the period and a wealth of empirical material of use to the historian literature student or social psychologist

Ghosts of the African Diaspora Joanne Chassot, 2018-01-02 The first monograph to investigate the poetics and politics of haunting in African diaspora literature Ghosts of the African Diaspora Re-Visioning History Memory and Identity examines literary works by five contemporary writers Fred D Aguiar Gloria Naylor Paule Marshall Michelle Cliff and Toni Morrison Joanne Chassot argues that reading these texts through the lens of the ghost does cultural theoretical and political work crucial to the writers engagement with issues of identity memory and history Drawing on memory and trauma studies postcolonial studies and queer theory this truly interdisciplinary volume makes an important contribution to the fast growing field of spectrality studies

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume s 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others The Greatest Black Achievers in History Sylvia Lovina Chidi, 2014-06-13 This book summarizes the lives of the great black people that have made great contributions to the lives of many Worldwide The book has brief detailed biographies of black activists scientists educators entertainers musicians inventors politicians authors sportsmen women and others who have surpassed the normal to make historical marks on society The biographical account of each individual provides relevant dates events and achievements by the individual There are pictures and excellent drawings that highlight particular moments in history This is one of the greatest pieces of work on black history and it will appeal to everyone including students groups universities libraries schools and anyone interested in history of black people in the World CrossRoutes, the Meanings of "race" for the 21st Century Paola Boi, 2003 This collection reflects the still urgent project of historical recuperation as well as an examination of literary representations and other cultural manifestations of the Black Diaspora Disciplinary work within the boundaries of African American Studies has been enhanced by more general considerations of the history of race and racism in globalized contexts The articles assembled here reflect recent empirical research as well as challenging theoretical considerations Contributions address particular formations of racialized modernity owed to the impact of the Atlantic slave trade and slavery and thus broaden the approach to the Middle Passage to improve our understanding of it as a constitutive transatlantic phenomenon in the widest possible sense 100 Must-read Prize-Winning Novels Nick Rennison, 2010-09-25 This handy pocket size guide part of the bestselling Must Read series introduces readers to the one hundred best novels that have won prestigious literary awards and provides an extended introduction to the background and history of these literary prizes More than a simple best of list the recommendations include insightful book reviews historical and literary context and cover a wide range of works of fiction
