The Politics of Adoption Bruno Perreau,2014-04-25 An argument that French adoption policies reflect and enforce the state s notions of gender parenthood and citizenship In May 2013 after months of controversy France legalized same sex marriage and adoption by homosexual couples Obstacles to adoption and parenting equality remain however many of them in the form of cultural and political norms reflected and expressed in French adoption policies In The Politics of Adoption Bruno Perreau describes the evolution of these policies In the past thirty years Perreau explains political and intellectual life in France have been dominated by debates over how to preserve Frenchness and these debates have driven policy making Adoption policies he argues link adoption to citizenship reflecting and enforcing the postcolonial state s notions of parenthood gender and Frenchness After reviewing the complex history of adoption Perreau examines French political debates over adoption noting among other things that intercountry adoptions stirred far less controversy than the difference between the sexes in an adopting couple He also discusses judicial action on adoption child welfare agencies as gatekeepers to parenthood as defined by experts the approval process from the viewpoints of social workers and applicants and adoption s link to citizenship and its use as a metaphor for belonging Adopting a Foucaultian perspective Perreau calls the biopolitics of adoption pastoral it manages the individual for the good of the collective flock it considers itself outside politics and it considers not so much the real behavior of individuals as an allegorical representation of them

His argument sheds new light on American debates on bioethics identity and citizenship Social Work with Looked After Children Christine Cocker, Lucille Allain, 2012-12-31 This revised edition details organisational systems and structures that are part of the assessment and planning process for looked after children This is closely interwoven with discussions about their emotional development educational health and cultural needs and how these needs can be met through social work and a range of other services The views of looked after children are highlighted through case studies and summaries of research findings and the range of skills and knowledge necessary to support looked after children through the key events they experience including loss change and the development of new relationships are explained and illustrated
