The Encyclopedia of Hollywood Film Actors Barry Monush, 2003-04-01 For decades Screen World has been the film professional's as well as the film buff's favorite and indispensable annual screen resource full of all the necessary statistics and facts. Now Screen World editor Barry Monush has compiled another comprehensive work for every film lover's library. In the first of two volumes this book chronicles the careers of every significant film actor from the earliest silent screen stars Chaplin Pickford Fairbanks to the mid 1960s when the old studio and star systems came crashing down. Each listing includes a brief biography, photos from the famed Screen World archives with many rare shots, vital statistics, a comprehensive filmography, and an informed, entertaining assessment of each actor's contributions, good or bad. In addition to every major player, Monush includes the legions of unjustly neglected troupers of yesteryear. The result is a rarity: an invaluable reference tool that's as much fun to read as a scandal sheet. It pulsates with all the scandal, glamour, oddity, and glory that was the lifeblood of its subjects. Contains over 1,000 photos. Longman Panorama Geography 6 Mukherjee Anuradha, 2007-09

The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all-inclusive A-Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5,000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them, as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a précis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast, as well as the key principles involved in production, from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system, which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations: for viewing, recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre, i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc., as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned, along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection. Desperately Seeking Paradise Ziauddin

Sardar, 2020-03-31 A curious, often amusing travelogue of Sardar's quest for understanding and the Muslims he has encountered along his journeys. Publishers Weekly: Ziauddin Sardar, one of the foremost Muslim intellectuals in Britain, learned the Koran at his mother's knee in Pakistan. As a young student in London, he set out to grasp the meaning of his religion and hopefully to find paradise, his quest leading him throughout the Muslim world from Iran to China to Turkey. Along the way, he accepts that he may never reach paradise, but it's the journey that's important. At a time when the view of Islam in the West is so often distorted and simplistic, Desperately Seeking Paradise, self-mocking, frank, and passionate, is essential reading. Intoxicating upon finishing the book, I turned back and started reading it all over again. Kamila Shamise New Statesman. At once earnest and humorous, light-hearted and profound, this is a book that displays a sustained capacity for self-questioning of a kind that has few parallels in the liberal West. The Independent. This challenging book not only acts as a guide for Muslims but provides insight and clarification for those outside the Islamic faith Financial Times The only funny book I've read about Islam Mail on Sunday
