It is one more example of the fact that our best work is that which is our heart's production. We have Lord Chesterfield's secret and it bears witness to the strength of that part of him in which an intellectual anatomist has declared him to be deficient: a criticism which is but another proof of that which has been somewhere said of him that he has had the fate to be generally misunderstood. Yet nothing is more certain than that Lord Chesterfield did not mean to be anything but inscrutable. Dissimulation is a shield he used to say as secrecy is armour.
