Love in America Lawrence R. Samuel,2019-11-29 Widely considered the most complex of human emotions romantic love both shapes and reflects core societal values its expression offering a window into the cultural zeitgeist In popular culture romantic love has long been a mainstay of film television and music The gap between fictitious narratives of love and real life ones is however usually wide American s expectations of romance and affection often transcend reality Tracing the history of love in American culture this book offers insight into both the national character and emotional nature Journey to the Kingdom Jon Meier,2025-08-13 This is a book of spiritual poems that are designed to lift up the reader while speaking of Jesus and God s love The book is something that could be added to your everyday devotion time It could also help someone who is looking to strengthen their relationship with Jesus and God I believe that Jesus and God are the purest forms of love in the world and everyone should be able to experience this feeling The intent of the book is to help those whose souls are lost and let them get to know Jesus and God the way they have helped me in my spiritual growth It's not What You Do, It's How You Become Deborah Rae Hall,2025-03-26 Deborah Hall s book How You Become is the result of a writing partnership with Star Beings from the Pleiades who have been communicating with her since 1999 This book is an amazing handbook of love with lessons in learning to love your self along with challenges to put your love into action for the benefit of Mother Earth and others struggling to survive Organized as a daybook with an essay to read each day the words will uplift you and hold your spirit high while helping you open your heart There are 52 exercises which are as inspiring and full of love as the essays They will stretch your heart muscles until you find the love you have been searching for Listen to your heart and let this book find you A Gift of Love Tony Cointreau,2016-08-30 I wrote A Gift of Love because people kept asking me to do so telling me that there was a great need for it Perhaps it was their parents who were dying or another family member or a close friend and they needed to know what they could do for their loved ones in those last weeks days or hours They knew that I had worked with Mother Teresa as a volunteer in her homes for the dying and had twelve years experience in what they were facing perhaps for the first time and asked me to pass on some of my knowledge In 1979 when I saw a magazine photograph of one of Mother Teresa s volunteers carrying a dying man in his arms I knew in an instant that I had to become a part of this work It was certainly not a religious calling but a simple calling to give something of myself to others I felt that if I could comfort one dying person my life would have had purpose It took me ten years to enter the world that I had only seen a glimpse of in that magazine article When I did it was during the worst of the AIDS crisis in the United States in a hospice called Gift of Love in New York City which had been opened by Mother Teresa in 1985 It had room for fifteen dying men most of them from a world I had never known a world of drugs poverty and crime a far cry from the privileged life of ch teaus in Europe that I had been brought up in and later on the world of show business in which I had been able to fulfill some of my greatest dreams In the years to come these men who were dying of AIDS and had never been given much of a chance in life taught me not only about the many ways to help others die in an atmosphere of peace and love but also how to enjoy the richness of living our lives fully until the very end Whenever Mother Teresa asked me to sing for her on her little terrace in Calcutta I never said No And when I asked her to help me write about caring for loved ones in their last days she also never said No What a blessing thank you Mother If I can reach just one person who is flailing around in panic and fear while trying to help a loved one at the end of their life my journey will have been worthwhile

Our Hidden Settlement Mona Ballge Miron, 2023-08-07 My journey goes back in time to Burton Michigan s history when it was still the Atherton Settlement 1835 1855 Genesee County was formed in 1836 Michigan wasn t even a state until 1837 This was an exciting time for new families to settle here finding land of their own for the first time freedom of religion and new adventures I ll be going through the yearly traditions behind the holidays and inventions along the way I hope you enjoy my historical journey Learning about the settlers on Thread River was a lot of fun how they made the Atherton Trail the four Atherton families working together to survive the cold winters They built strong shelters saved food and wood for the winter with the help of the natives In 1835 the Atherton Settlement was established the Atherton families built a strong community over the next twelve months with thirty families They built their homes barns wagons three churches a mill and a trading post The first school in the settlement was founded in 1836 the Atherton School was a one room schoolhouse built on the corner of Atherton Trail and Center Road where the Burton Memorial Library sits now Betsey Atherton was the first teacher Throughout my research we have a lot to be thankful for especially the four Atherton men that were brave enough to stay and never give up on the settlement As more people joined the settlement for the next 20 years some had military backgrounds and mostly coming from New York With all manner of trades to prosper as the community when more schools were needed the farmers would build one in each area for the children 1855 Atherton Settlement combined with other farms to become Burton Township the second largest township but without a post office so HIDDEN Happiness!. Kelly Chance Beckman, 2011 Love Around the World / Love Is Love, Series Bundle Fleur Pierets, 2021-09-23 Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts Victor Karandashev, 2016-12-24 This volume presents a conceptual historical anthropological and sociological review of how culture affects our experience and expression of romantic love What is romantic love and how is it different from and similar to other kinds of love How is romantic love related to sex and marriage in human history and across contemporary cultures What cultural factors mediate attraction in love These are some of the questions the volume explores through its interdisciplinary yet focused lens Much of the current research evidence suggests that love is a universal emotion experienced by a majority of people in various historical eras and in all the world s cultures Yet love displays in different ways because culture has an impact on people s conceptions of love and the ways they feel think and behave in romantic relationships This volume summarizes classical knowledge on love and culture while at the same time focusing sharply on recent studies and cutting edge research that has advanced the field Divided into three parts the volume begins by defining and analyzing the concept of romantic love and interdisciplinary approach to its study in cultural context Part II traces the origin and evolution of romantic love both in various places throughout the world and various time periods throughout history Part III presents the revolutionary expansion of romantic love ideas and practices in the late 20th and early 21st centuries in various parts of the world focusing particularly on the development of romantic love as a cultural ideal of the modern cultures Finally the book concludes by summarizing the major achievements in this field of study and predicts future development A timely and thoughtful addition to the literature Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts delivers thought provoking insights to researchers in relationship scholarship sociology anthropology and cultural studies and all those interested in the universal human concept of love Overall I find Dr Victor Karandashev is an excellent and fine scholar who has a firm grasp of both the fundamental principles of cross cultural research and of anthropology In our increasingly connected world Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts updates and adds to the descriptions and explanations of similarities and differences in romantic love across generations and cultures Romantic love encompasses the life span rather than being a phenomenon largely confined to youthful years The topic of this project concerns the deepest of our sentiments and pervades life from birth to death This book contributes to better knowledge of this phenomenon across generations Flix Neto Professor of Psychology Faculdade de Psicologia e de Ciências da Educação Universidade do Porto Portugal

But the Greatest of These Is Love Eward M. Vigeant, 2014-03-05 This new Thought System emphasizes application rather than theology It specifically states that a universal religion is impossible but a Universal Experience is not only possible but also necessary This Universal Experience
