

A photograph of a park bench in autumn. The ground is covered in fallen orange and yellow leaves. In the background, there are trees with similar foliage. A semi-transparent dark rectangle is overlaid on the image, containing a quote in white text. Below the quote, the name 'Mother Teresa' is written in a smaller font, and a small circular logo with the word 'quotefancy' is visible at the bottom center of the rectangle.

The hunger for love is much more difficult to remove than the hunger for bread.

Love Is A Hunger:

Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love, Violence and Masculinity Kopano Ratele, 2022-09-01 Using conversations observations and reflections psychologist Kopano Ratele meditates on love violence and masculinity This book seeks to imagine the possibility of a more loving masculinity in a society where structural violence failures of government and economic inequality underpin much of the violent behavior that men display Enriched with personal reflections on his own experiences as a partner father psychologist and researcher in the field of men and masculinities Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love Violence and Masculinity is Kopano Ratele's meditation on love and violence and the way these forces shape the emotional lives of boys and men At the core of these critical and deeply insightful texts is the question of why men hurt women they love Ratele contends that many men in our society suffer from a painful unrecognized yet consequential love hunger that sets in during boyhood This need for love may lie at the root of some of the male violence that damages the lives of women children and men themselves Blending academic analysis and rigor in a readable narrative style Ratele illuminates the complex nuances of gender intimacy and power in the context of the human need for love and care While unsparing in his analysis of men's inner lives Ratele lays out a path for addressing the hunger for love in boys and men He argues that just as the beliefs and practices relating to gender sexuality and the nature of love are constantly being challenged and revised so our ideas about masculinity and men's and boys capacity to show genuine loving care for each other and for women can evolve

Simons, Trevor Melia, 1989 Capturing the lively modernist milieu of Kenneth Burke's early career in Greenwich Village where Burke arrived in 1915 fresh from high school in Pittsburgh this book discovers him as an intellectual apprentice conversing with the moderns Burke found himself in the midst of an avant garde peopled by Malcolm Cowley Marianne Moore Jean Toomer Katherine Anne Porter William Carlos Williams Allen Tate Hart Crane Alfred Stieglitz and a host of other fascinating figures Burke himself who died in 1993 at the age of 96 has been hailed as America's most brilliant and suggestive critic and the most significant theorist of rhetoric since Cicero Many schools of thought have claimed him as their own but Burke has defied classification and indeed has often been considered a solitary eccentric genius immune to intellectual fashions But Burke's formative work of the 1920s when he first defined himself and his work in the context of the modernist conversation has gone relatively unexamined Here we see Burke living and working with the crowd of poets painters and dramatists affiliated with Others magazine Stieglitz's 291 gallery and Eugene O'Neill's Provincetown Players the leftists associated with the magazines The Masses and Seven Arts the Dadaists and the modernist writers working on literary journals like The Dial where Burke in his capacity as an associate editor saw T S Eliot's The Wasteland into print for the first time and provided other editorial services for Thomas Mann and e e cummings Ezra Pound and many other writers of note Burke also met the iconoclasts of the older generation represented by Theodore Dreiser and H L Mencken the New Humanists and the literary nationalists who founded Contact and The New Republic Jack Selzer shows how Burke's own early poems fiction and essays emerged from and contributed to the modernist conversation in Greenwich Village He draws on a wonderfully rich array of letters between Burke and his modernist friends and on the memoirs of his associates to create a vibrant portrait of the young Burke's transformation from aesthete to social critic

Jesus and his Two Fathers: The Person and the Legacy Uri Wernik,2020-03-03 Who was Jesus in real life What inspired his ideas What did he aim to achieve What drew his disciples to him How was he influenced by them Unlike the many quests for the historical Jesus as a psychologist Wernik answers these questions from the perspectives of psychology and the social sciences This book's central axis is the theme of the father It looks at the family constellation into which Jesus was born where he was raised by a stepfather It also investigates the relationship he develops with God his father in heaven and examines how he became a father figure to his disciples and followers It is hoped that readers will also think about their own father when reading the one usually called dad Jesus and His Two Fathers sees Jesus love of peace and appeasement doctrine as well as his difficulty with anger control in the context of his upbringing and family constellation Wernik offers a solution to the problem of the missing years which were unaccounted in the New Testament He examines the internal conflicts in Jesus movement and the tensions with the religious establishment which led to his death Jesus did not see himself as the Messiah and Wernik shows him in fact as a great reformer of Judaism who changed the notions of righteousness the relation of the believers to God and the status of the commandments This book will be of interest to scholars teachers and students in the humanities and social sciences among others in the fields of religion especially Christianity and Judaism It is aimed at interested discerning readers of non fiction in these areas

The Mark of Cain J. Reid Meloy, 2013-06-17 The Mark of Cain makes available for the first time the accumulated psychoanalytic understanding of the psychopathic mind Editor Reid Meloy a leading authority on the psychology of the psychopath has brought together in a single collection the most historically important psychoanalytic papers on the psychopath and delineated their continuing relevance to contemporary understanding According to Meloy two theoretical traditions flow into the psychoanalytic understanding of psychopathy The first tributary focuses on the early development of the psychopath in order to illuminate how a profound alteration in self regard leads both to a denigration of the other and to an impulsive search for gratification in the present The second tributary seeks to locate the psychopathic miscarriage of human potentiality within analytic theories of personality structure and clinically grounded differential diagnosis Meloy presents the major contributions associated with both of these traditions Included within this body of literature are the original formulations of concepts that have long since become part of the psychoanalytic nomenclature the affectionless juvenile offender the diagnostic significance of affect hunger the behavioral consequences of superego lacunae the recourse to promiscuous identification in the impostor and the paradoxically lethal lure of malignant narcissism Of special interest are Meloy s historical notes to each chapter and two section introductions the latter major essays in their own right The explosion of empirical research on psychopathy over the past two decades masks the fact that much contemporary work in this area is grounded in the clinical formulations of leading psychoanalysts of the twentieth century The Mark of Cain rescues this intimate understanding of the inner world of the psychopath and thereby contributes to clinical realism in the face of deception manipulation exploitation and even frank dangerousness

Without Rest Daniel Strasel, 2020-09-21 A tale of love and madness When he confronts the truth a lovesick god has all of his dreams turned into nightmares In a moment of passion a lovesick god willingly fails and breaks the divine law Desperate to nourish and cultivate his renegade love he searches for the answers to the questions on his heart Told that he must go to the darkest place in all creation and that only there will he gain what he needs in order to succeed he does not hesitate in beginning his dread adventure When he later finds himself in such a place he does indeed achieve the means to win his love forever although he did not fully understand the cost In the mortal realm an unlikely group of would be heroes find themselves hunted by powers they cannot possibly hope to overcome Captured and taken to a place where sanity is a commodity they keep their spirits high by helping those around them as they look for a missing companion While they are searching they discover much to their surprise that they are in the middle of a secret fight amongst the gods In the end love is both triumphant and forsaken in this charming yet mordant tale of gods and heroes Sermons ... i, ii, iii, upon human nature, notes by T.B.
