Man Living On A Side Creek And Other Poems:

Man Living on a Side Creek Stephan Torre,1993-11-01 Carefully wrought and passionate Stephan Torre s poetry considers life and work on the edge of wild lands wrestling with one of the central paradoxes of the human condition the drive to change and conquer the very wilderness that is the source of sanctuary and spiritual renewal Wilderness settings permeate Torre s work from Wyoming s flathead Lake to the south central coast of California to the spruce forests and subsistence farms of British Columbia s Frazier River Valley Images evocative of manual labor also abound axle grease wood shavings machinery rusting in abandoned fields as Torre realizes his themes with unprecedented empathy and lyric intensity

Iron Fever & Other Poems Stephan Torre,2003 After early years growing up in Montana and Wisconsin Stephan Torre spent his teen years in Monterey California After college in Berkeley and San Francisco he lived on the Big Sur and Mendocino coasts working as a wood butcher building houses and salvaging redwood logs Torre later went north to settle on a remote homestead in the Canadian Rockies with his wife and two daughters scratching a living from livestock and sawmills Eventually he moved south to Point Reyes California then to the Great Basin high desert where he now lives on a small ranch at the base of the Warner Mountains Given his priority for living in raw and untamed country Torre s poems are seldom without reference to wild landscape He resists however being called a nature poet since he frequently deals with traditional rural male work gender privilege art and the tensions inherent in people s rapacious claims of land ownership Long Like a River Nancy Schoenberger,1998-03 Many rivers run through Nancy Schoenberger s third collection of poems Long Like a River winner of the 1997 New York University Press Prize for Poetry From the Clark Fork its full house of trout the dream of a summer noon to the Mississippi long as its Indian name to the Amazon and Napo Rivers these poems explore the poet s Deep South roots plumbing memory and desire and paying homage along the way to Theodore Roethke and George Seferis

The Marvelous Adventures of Pierre Baptiste Patricia Eakins,1999-05 A magic realism novel on an 18th century slave in the Caribbean who becomes a philosopher writing an encyclopedia on his race After escaping by sea he lands on an island is made pregnant by a mermaid and gives birth through his mouth to a quartet of filosofish The Ruins Trace

Farrell,1998-04-01 Set among the spinning cogs and wheels of a lavish dinner club for the gastronomical Elect The Ruins is a black eyed Machiavellian fairy tale for adults a gleeful cautionary discourse on ambition and ingratitude and the penalties for disbelief in those forces within oneself Like all fairy tales it turns on subjection the increasingly comic and catastrophic subjection of our hero Tom a high minded and half starved shoeshine boy Tom shifts for himself in a dank and vaguely apocalyptic city where the days come and go in a flat lurid tide noon and midnight like sullen twins so indifferently does light distinguish itself from darkness Easily enticed from the artless squalor of his past into the dazzling and treacherous table politics of The Ruins our hero soon finds himself at escalating odds with the diabolical proprietor Jones an extravagant if charismatic crackpot Tom s ill fated efforts to reform The Ruins finally and improbably rewarded at the glittering Fool s Ball lead him on a devastating rise and illustrious tumble to humility humanity and practical grace In the tradition of Thomas Pynchon and Kurt Vonnegut Trace Farrell delivers this highly original first novel with the arch rhetoric and insinuating charm of a seasoned carnival barker Slyly drawing the eye to a world teeming with life after all no more horrid than gorgeous The Ruins marks the arrival of a major new literary talent The Lost and Found, and Other Stories Anne

Marsella,1994-03 This collection of stories is as its title suggests a sort of lost and found peopled with odd and vivid characters who are often alone and displaced but whose world is one where the miraculous is hover lurking and possible

The Alphabet of Desire Barbara Hamby,1999-05 In this book of poetry Barbara Hamby races through the circuitous regions of heaven and hell desire and love trailing words ahead of and behind her giving shape and significance to the strange and the familiar Not limited to the self referential Hamby playfully references historic and literary personae taking stabs at Shakespeare Jane Austen the Bible and Casanova Swan, what Shores? Veronica Patterson,2000-05 Winner of the Colorado Book Award Winner of the Willa Literary Award As heard on Public Radio International s The Writer s Almanac Full of music and evocative word play Veronica Patterson s Swan What Shores offers alluring poems varied in form and inventive in approach In language that is both precise and lyrical Patterson s work like much of the best poetry plumbs the human condition with depth wit and above all compassion The poems offer fine surprises from the lyrical litany of The Riddle of My Want the stride of your eyes a summering of skin to the unusual elegy Three Photographs Not of My Father to the mysteries embodied in Where Are My Swans All movement in their dreams is theirs that glide without haste for what core of the universe has to hurry Swan What Shores marks the blossoming of a major poetic talent Poets & Writers ,1994

The Hong Kong Modernism of Leung Ping-kwan C. T. Au,2019-11-29 This book resolves around the fundamental question What is Hong Kong modernism To address this issue C T Au identifies three significant characteristics a renewal of traditions an obsession with ordinary things and an expression of concerns about social and political issues shared among Western modernisms Chinese modernism in the 1940s and such Hong Kong modernists as Ma Lang Liu Yichang and Leung Ping kwan Yasi Ye Si This research concentrates on an examination of the major modernist tenets embodied in Leung s literary works Leung Ping kwan is one of the most prominent and widely read Hong Kong modernist writers however there exist only a few scholarly works which focus on the direct relationship between Leung s works and modernisms The author argues that Leung paid special attention to issues regarding tradition daily life and colonial culture in order to understand his past his identity and the unique features of Hong Kong modernism which celebrate multiple perspectives and inclusiveness This study not only helps differentiate Hong Kong modernism from other modernisms positioning the former as a variant of the latter but also provides a response to the problems evoked by Hong Kong s colonial milieu Select Poems Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1899 Directory of American Poetry Books ,1995 Select Poems of Alfred Lord Tennyson Alfred Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1895 Alaska Quarterly Review ,1998 Books in Print ,1991 Poetry Harriet
